GERMANS RENEW DRIVE IN FLANDERS

OVER 500,000 AMERICANS ON BATTLE LINE

BAKER'S FORECAST MADE IN JANUARY HAS BEEN TOPPED

Secretary Refuses to Give Exact Number of Americans Facing Germans, But Says Over Half Million Have Been Sent Across.

MACHINE GUN SUPPLY DECLARED SUFFICIENT

Baker Says There Is No Present Shortage of Light or Heavy Types Either in France or America and No Shortage in Prospect.

Washington, May 8.—More than half a million American soldiers have been sent to France. Secretary Baker today authorized the statement that his forecast to congress in January that 500,000 troops would be dispatched to France early in the present year now had been surpassed.

Mr. Baker dictated the following statement:

"In January I told the senate committee that there was strong likelihood that early in the present year 500,000 American troops would be dispatched to France. I cannot either now or perhaps later, discuss the number of American troops in France, but I am glad to be able to say that the forecast I made in January has been surpassed."

As a result of a personal investigation of machine gun production during the past few days, the secretary announced that there is no present shortage of light or heavy types of these weapons either in France or America, and no shortage is in prospect.

Supply of Browning Guns.

Mr. Baker said there had been no question brought up as to the supplies of light type Browning guns, which were coming forward in quantities. He would not say whether shipment of these guns to France had been started. As to the heavy Brownings, he said:

"Early manufacturers' estimates as to the production of the heavy type perhaps were more optimistic than was justified. The estimate of the ordnance department in January has been met and is being met. Some of these heavy guns have been produced and there is every indication of forthcoming production in increasing and substantial numbers."

The secretary chose his words about the troops in France with utmost care. He would not amplify the statement in any way and specifically asked that the press refrain from speculation as to what precise figures his guarded remarks covered or as to what possibilities of early additional increases in the force on the other side there might be.

Troop Movement Being Rushed.

There has been repeated official announcements, however, that the government is bending every energy to rushing men across to back up the allied lines in France and officers directly in charge of the transportation have expressed satisfaction with the progress being made. There is no doubt that the present force of American troops there represents only a small part of the total strength that will be available for employment by General Foch before the summer fighting ends.

There are indications, too, that the war department has adhered strictly to its policy of equipping fully before his departure every man sent across. That is the first consideration in checking off supplies of clothing and arms. Mr. Baker's recent study of the whole ordnance program was founded on his desire to see just what the situation was in this slowest element of the war preparations.

Secretary Baker's conclusions as to machine guns follow on the heels of pessimistic statements by members of congress in this regard. In the discussion of the production of Browning machine guns, contracts for other types both here and abroad, apparently have been lost sight of. These contracts preceded the placing of orders for the Brownings and that supply was designed to meet the emergency until the new gun was available in quantities.

The Artillery Question.

The present practice of brigading American units with French and British divisions, it is pointed out, makes the artillery question less pressing as an immediate independent supply. The allied divisions to which the Americans are assigned already have the artillery necessary and the fact that American infantry is added to them does not mean a proportionate increase in guns. It is man-power that is being supplied by the new arrangement and additional gun-power will be necessary only where independent American divisions or any corps are formed.

Today's statement regarding the movement to France is the first official utterance made during the war indicating even indirectly the number of men sent abroad. The first force to go over was never described except as a division, although, as a matter of

326th Infantry Safe in England, Say Cablegrams

Friends and Relatives of Men in Regiment Which Trained at Gordon Receive Cablegrams Wednesday. Safe Arrival Post Cards From 325th Also.

Announcement of the safe arrival in England of the 326th Infantry regiment was contained in cablegrams received in Georgia Wednesday by relatives and friends of men in that regiment.

Safe arrival post cards have also been received from members of the 325th regiment, from which it is assumed also that it has arrived safely, although no cablegram has been received to this effect.

Both regiments are a portion of the Eighty-second division and trained at Camp Gordon, leaving some time ago for overseas service.

German-American Captured Spying On Pershing's Men

Beside His Spy Work It Is Charged He Aided German Prisoner to Escape.

With the American Army in France, May 8.—(By the Associated Press.)—The first German-American to be captured spying on the Americans is safely in custody.

Behind the characterization of traitor to his country, contained in the report of his arrest, is the story that he aided a German prisoner to escape. Both men donned American officers' uniforms and entered the line from the rear in the late afternoon. They said they were studying the ground between the lines with a view to using tanks and asked to be allowed to cross the lines. The officer to whom they made the request soon discovered the ruse and ordered them escorted to the rear. There it was found that one of the men was a German and that the German-American was his accomplice.

RAISING DRAFT AGE UP TO FORTY YEARS BEING CONSIDERED

Legislation to That End Discussed by Provost Marshal Crowder and House Military Committee.

$15,762,000 REQUESTED FOR EXPENSES OF DRAFT

Crowder Says There Are 2,265,000 Men in Class 1, and 500,000 Will Be Added by Registration of Boys Who Have Reached 21.

Washington, May 8.—Legislation raising the draft age to 40 years was discussed as a possibility within a few months at a meeting today of Provost Marshal General Crowder and the house military committee. Although General Crowder made no specific recommendations, members of the committee said afterwards that the war department was considering a plan for changes.

An appropriation of $15,762,000 was asked by General Crowder for expenses of the draft for the next fiscal year. Registration of men reaching the age of 21 will require the examination, he said, of half a million more men than originally provided for. Class 1, the general said, now has a total of about 2,265,000 men, of whom 2,000,000 are effectives.

Chairman dent, of the committee, announced today that he would ask the house to eliminate from the draft legislation pending an amendment giving states credit for volunteers. In a letter to Mr. Dent, President Wilson today came out in opposition to the credit plan, and asked that the measure be passed as approved by the war department.

The conference report on the bill for registration of youths becoming 21 will be called up in the house tomorrow, with prospects of a lively debate over the proposal to exempt ministers from the law.

General Crowder explained that of the $15,000,000 asked, $4,370,000 is for allowances to draft board members for additional registrations and classifications, $8,000,000 for clerk hire and $3,000,000 for physical examinations.

"It is estimated," he said, "that it will be necessary to examine 1,000,000 men in addition to those already examined, including men who were minors at the date of the first registration and who will have to be classified in class one before June 30, 1919."

FOURTH NATIONAL TO RUN ELEVATORS BY GIRL OPERATORS

The Atlanta slacker who won't take his hat off in an elevator if he is standing behind a woman and he thinks she doesn't see him will have to change his tactics soon, for all the elevators may be operated by girls in a short time.

W. R. Beck is trying this plan out in the Fourth National Bank building now. He placed an ad for elevator girls, ages 22 to 32 years, and Wednesday morning he was besieged by applicants who appeared to range all the way from 16 to 45. He was kept busy all morning interviewing these applicants, and the strange part about it was that he interviewed those of the lower figure first and didn't have time to get to those around 45.

According to Mr. Beck this is an experiment on his part, but men are hard to find for these places and such favorable reports come from those cities which have tried elevator girls that he decided to try it out here. There isn't any doubt but that it will be a success, for girls have always been able to "carry a man as high" as anybody, and generally a little higher.

GEN. EBEN SWIFT ON RETIRED LIST NEXT SATURDAY

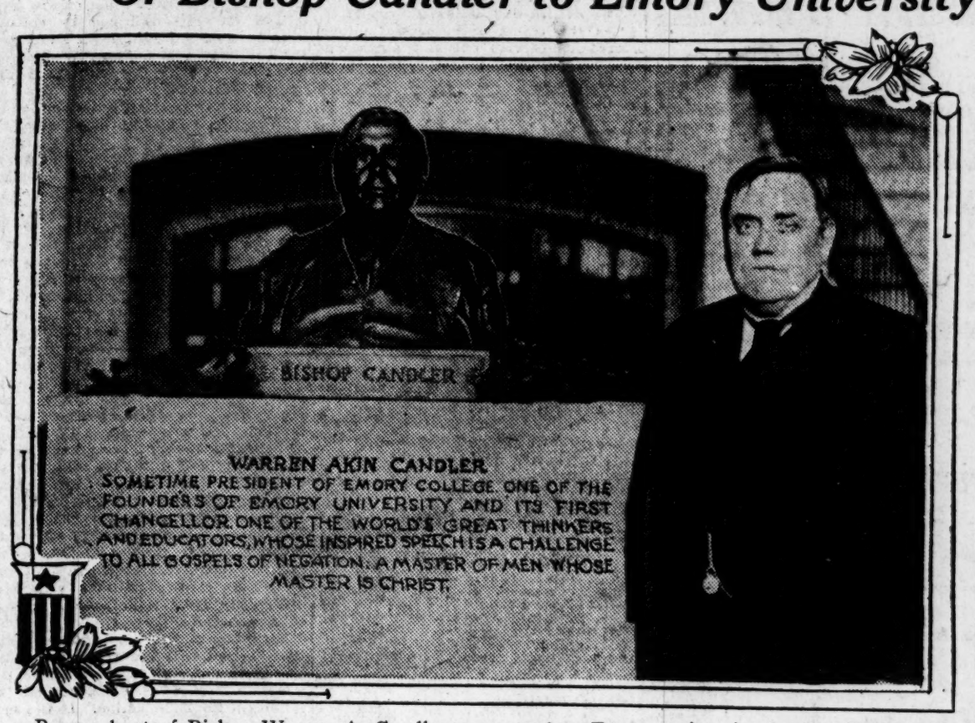

By J. A. Hollomon.

Washington, May 8.—(Special.)—Major General Eben Swift, national army, who is a brigadier general in the regular army, will be transferred to the retired list Saturday by operation of law, on account of age. General Swift was in command of the 82nd division at Camp Gordon, when sent abroad a few months ago to make a special study of conditions on the French and Italian fronts. Although no orders to that effect have yet been issued by the war department, General Swift may be retained on active duty.

Class of '93 Presents Bronze Bust Of Bishop Candler to Emory University

Bronze bust of Bishop Warren A. Candler, presented to Emory university by the Class of 1893, and Bishop Candler today, chancellor of the university.

By Rev. Thomas M. Elliott.

It is an unusual thing for a monument commemorating the man and his labors to be presented to an institution during that man's lifetime. But such a thing occurred in the presentation of a bronze bust of Bishop Warren A. Candler, chancellor of Emory university to that institute by the class of 1893 Wednesday afternoon.

The occasion was one of great interest, the entire general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, attending in a body, as well as several hundred city residents and out-of-town people. The exercises were held in the hall of the Candler School of Theology building, presided over by Norman C. Miller. Judge Walter T. Colquitt made the address of presentation in an eloquent eulogy of the bishop, while Dr. Plato Durham, dean of the School of Theology, accepted the bust in behalf of the school and university.

Misses Lucy Candler, Elizabeth Owens and Catherine Candler, grandnieces of Bishop Candler, and Miss Frances Sledd, a granddaughter, were asked to unveil the bust. As the bust was exposed to view, Wiedmeyer's band rendered "The Star Spangled Banner," making the occasion more impressive, the people standing.

The bronze bust is a work of art, having been designed by the noted sculptor, Gorge T. Brewster, head of the School of Sculpture of the Cooper institute in New York city, and made by the Gorham company. The pedestal is made of Georgia marble from the quarries of the Georgia Marble company at Tate, Ga.

The presentation exercises were preceded by an old-fashioned Georgia barbecue, tendered the general conference by the members of the class of 1893. After the presentation ceremonies visitors from many states entered the buildings of the new university and inspected them.

The concluding feature of the 1893 class celebration in honor of Bishop Candler was a banquet tendered in his honor Wednesday night at the Piedmont hotel. Attending the banquet were Dr. J. E. Dickey, Professor M. T. Peed, Professor J. F. Bonnell and Professor H. H. Stone, all of whom were professors in Emory college when the class was graduated.

CONFERENCE AGOG OVER TIME LIMIT; NO DECISION YET

Question Will Be Discussed Again Today and No One Can Tell Which Way Matter Will Be Decided.

DAY'S ACTION CAUSES COMPLEX SITUATION

Amendments to Both Majority Reports Adopted Which Are Conflicting. Bishop McCoy May Come.

By Rev. Thomas M. Elliott.

The Methodist general conference, now in session at Wesley Memorial church, has not yet settled the question of the time limit for ministers of that denomination, and, what is more, no man living can say how it will be settled. The first matter to come before the body this morning will be the resumption of the discussion, which was brought to a close Wednesday by adjournment by limitation, when an important vote was just about to be taken on the measure.

Announcement was made Wednesday afternoon that the committee appointed to make investigations into the constitution of the Methodist church will be in position today or tomorrow to make report. The proposal that the constitution be searched was introduced in the early days of the conference, and was referred to the committee on revisals with instructions to report with a definite and clear statement as to what the constitution is and what needed changes should be made. Ministers in charge of the investigations are Bishop E. D. Mouzon, Revs. A. J. Lamar, H. M. DuBose, F. M. Thomas, U. V. W. Darlington and O. E. Goddard.

The true situation with reference to the time limit question is as follows: A majority committee report, representing at least 50 members, recommended the removal of the time limit on all preachers. On Wednesday an amendment was offered and accepted to the majority report providing that presiding elders should not serve longer

8 U.S. Gunners Killed And 7 Others Injured When Shell Explodes

ALL RAIL WORKERS UNDER $250 MONTH TO GET MORE PAY

Recommendations Would Give $100,000,000 in Back Pay From January 1 and Add $388,013,718 to Pay Roll as of 1917.

Washington, May 8.—All railroad employees whose monthly pay in December, 1915, was less than $250 a month, have been recommended for wage increases by the railroad wage commission.

The recommendations, if adopted by Director General McAdoo, would give the workers $100,000,000 in back pay from January 1, and would add $288,013,718 to the pay roll as of 1917, a net increase of 15.021 per cent.

Wage advances proposed, however, do not represent net increases over existing pay, but are based on the month of December, 1915. In other words, any increases which may have been allowed by individual roads since that time must be deducted. In some cases deductions will almost if not altogether cover the increases suggested, according to the report. The roads themselves during 1916 and 1917 increased wages an amount equivalent to $350,000,000 if applied to the present number of their employees.

Those Who Have Received Increases.

"As to those who have received such increases," the report says, "we advise no other course than that the scale be adhered to, for it has its foundation in principle and not in the compelling force of any unusual competition. In no event, however, should there be any reduction in wages for those now obtaining.

"The railroads must, however, maintain their employment of workers, and, if by meeting fairly, as here, the needs

One Gun Crew Entirely Wiped Out Near Fort Worth and Second Crew Suffered Heavy Casualties.

Fort Worth, Texas, May 8.—Eight American gunners were killed and seven injured more or less seriously near Benbrook, a few miles west of Fort Worth, when a three-inch shell exploded late today. One gun crew, composed of men of the headquarters company of the 141st infantry, was entirely wiped out and a second crew from headquarters company of the 142d infantry suffered heavy casualties. Six of the men were instantly killed and two died within a short time after the explosion. First reports that two trench mortars had exploded were erroneous.

Tried to Force Shell.

An attempt on the part of a gunner to force the shell, which apparently did not fit down a trench mortar, is believed to have been responsible for the accident. Sergeant Norman Bow, a Canadian, who is an assistant instructor, said tonight he saw a soldier attempting to force the shell and that he attempted to warn the gunner. The explosion came too quickly, however. Bow was slightly wounded by a fragment of the shell.

The list of dead follows:

First Lieutenant Alan J. McDavid, Overton, Texas.

Sergeant Louis A. Halphen, Austin, Texas.

Corporal Wharton Jones, San Marcos, Texas.

Corporal William P. Appleng, Elena, Texas.

Private Morgan C. Sanders, Abilene, Texas.

Private Euclid Simmons, Henrietta, Texas.

Private John Webber, Memphis, Texas.

Private Lacy R. Langley, Waelder, Texas.

The wounded, except Sergeant Norman Bow, of the British army, were all from Texas.

General Greble Escaped.

General E. St. John Greble, commanding officer at Camp Bowie, was standing less than ten yards from the scene of the explosion with his two

GERMAN SUCCESS AT CERTAIN POINTS ADMITTED BY HAIG

The Attack Was Launched Against the Anglo-French Forces Between LaClytte and Voormezeele in Ypres Sector.

FIGHTING VERY HEAVY, ACCORDING TO BRITISH

At Many Points on the Line the Germans Were Repulsed, Haig Reports. Germans Seem to Be Aiming at Scherpenberg Hill.

New York, May 8.—By Associated Press. From European Cables of the Day.)—What possibly may prove to be the prelude to the long expected resumption of hostilities by the Germans on the western front is being played.

Southeast of Ypres, from the region of Voormezeele to La Clytte, the Germans have launched an attack against the British and French troops holding the line and at certain points over the five-mile battle front they have met with some success by penetrating front line trenches. Apparently, however, over the greater part of the field of combat they met with repulse.

As is usual, the enemy began the attack after a heavy preliminary bombardment. The ground gained is south of Dickebusch lake and in Ridge wood, around which places hard fighting was continuing at last accounts.

The objective of the enemy seems to be the pushing forward of his line in this region in order still farther to outflank Ypres on the southwest and press on toward Poeperinghe and the railway line running between that town and Ypres.

MEAGER NEWS OF BATTLE

As yet only meager advices have come through concerning the nature of the engagement, but unofficial reports indicate that it was made only in divisional strength. Whether it would develop later into another of the great battles that have been fought in this area could not be foretold.

On the remainder of the front in Flanders and Picardy artillery duels and small operations continue on isolated sectors. The French south of La Clytte have penetrated German advanced positions and taken prisoners and the Australians east of Amiens have again pinched in and taken over portions of the German line. The artillery activity has been particularly heavy on both banks of the Avre, southwest of Amiens and on the sector in Picardy held by the American troops. On the Toul sector the Americans for the first time have opened against the Germans with their heavy artillery.

On the other battle fronts the operations continue of a minor character. In Mesopotamia the British have advanced their line to within 80 miles of Mosul, capturing the town of Kerkuk, which the Turks evacuated without giving battle.

ALLIED FRONT LINE PIERCED IN PLACES BY GERMAN TROOPS

London, May 8.—"After a heavy bombardment on a wide front in Flanders, the German infantry this morning launched an attack south of Dickebusch Lake, which lies between Ypres and Kemmel," says Reuter's correspondent at British headquarters.

"The attack apparently was only in divisional strength, but it may develop larger proportions. The enemy seems to have penetrated our front line between the lake and wood and some parties of Germans are reported in the eastern wood itself. The fighting continues in fine weather and under good visibility.

"We still hold the major part of the wood and also Kleine Vierstraat. The technical objective of enemy operations seem to be an attempt to clear the way for a thrust toward Scherpenberg from the northeast, and it may prove to be the beginning of further fierce fighting in this region."

HAIG ADMITS GERMAN GAIN.

London, May 8.—In an attack against the British and French line between La Clytte and Voormezelle, in the Ypres sector, the Germans early this morning succeeded, after heavy fighting, in entering the allied front line positions at certain points, according to Field Marshal Haig's official communication issued this morning. The communication adds that at all other points the enemy met with repulse.

The communication follows:

"This morning the enemy launched a strong local attack against French and British troops holding the sector between La Clytte and Voormezeele, and in the center his attack succeeded, after heavy fighting, in entering the front line of the allied positions at certain points. The fighting continues in these localities.

"At all other points the enemy's attacks were repulsed.

"By successful local operations the French troops advanced their line during the night south of La Clytte and captured a number of prisoners.

"On the remainder of the British front there is nothing of special interest to report."

The British day statement reads:

"As the result of successful minor operations carried out last night our line between the Somme and Ancre rivers has been advanced a short distance in three localities. We captured several prisoners.

"The hostile artillery has been active during the night between Locon and Robecq, and in the neighborhood of St. Julien. Early this morning the enemy artillery developed increased activity in the Meteren-Kemmel sector."

Advance by Australians.

With the British Army in France, May 8.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Australians last night made another advance, pushing forward their lines 500 yards along a front of 600 yards near Sailly-Le-Sec, on the sector east of Amiens. They also pushed back the Germans 300 yards along a front of 500 yards west of Morlancourt, just above Sailly-Le-Sec. Notwithstanding a heavy barrage the Germans were unable to prevent their advance.

ARTILLERY ACTIONS ALONG AVRE RIVER.

Paris, May 8.—Havy artillery fighting occurred last night on both sides of the Avre river, southeast of Amiens, the war office announces.

The statement follows:

"There was very great activity of the artillery on both sides during the night north and south of the Avre.

"Raids attempted by the enemy west of Montdidier and in the regions of Thennes and Grivesnes were broken up by the French, who took prisoners.

"There is nothing to report from the rest of the front."

The war office announcement tonight says:

Both artilleries were active north and south of the Avre, but there was no infantry action.

"Eastern Theater, May 7: The artillery was active on both sides along the whole front between Lake Doiran and Monastir. Two enemy attacks against the Serbian positions near Vetrenik and east of the Cerna were repulsed."

GERMAN REPORT ON OPERATIONS.

Berlin, May 8.—(Via London.)—The German official communication issued today says:

"South of the Nieuport canal we captured some Belgians on the occasion of successful reconnoitering operations.

"On the Flanders battlefield and on the Lys the artillery battle was revived at Mont Kemmel and near and to the west of Bailleul.

"During forefield engagements on the Somme battlefields, English and French prisoners were taken. On both sides of the Corbie-Bray road, after strong mining preparations the enemy unsuccessfully attacked. Troops which were kept at readiness were effectively caught by our fire.

"On the occasion of a farther attack in the night south of the road we drove back the enemy in counter attacks.

"Strong artillery activity has continued at the Luce brook on the western bank of the Avre."

"There weer local engagements south of Dickebusch lake," says the evening report from headquarters.

BRITISH TROOPS IN MESOPOTAMIA MOVE ON MOSUL

London, May 8.—British troops on May 1 entered the Turkish town of Kerkuk, 50 miles southeast of Mosul, in Mesopotamia, the British war office announced today. The British met with no opposition. The Turks on retiring left six hundred men in the Kerkuk hospital.

The text of the statement reads:

"Mesopotamia: A portion of our troops entered Kerkuk on May 1 without opposition. The Turks, who retired towards the lesser Zab river, left 600 men in hospitals in the town. They also abandoned three damaged airplanes. A heavy rain has fallen."

CONFERENCE AGOG OVER TIME LIMIT

than four years consecutively. A minority report signed by 13 men was submitted to the body. An amendment to the minority report was accepted providing that a pastor might continue longer than four years on the request of a majority of the presiding elders and the quarterly conference, after an amendment to the amendment providing that eight years should be the limit, was lost.

The conference voted, 169 to 130, that the minority amendment be accepted, and an aye and nay vote was just about to be taken, when Judge John S. Candler notified the conference that it had already adjourned by statute of limitation. The conference had voted the day before to adjourn Wednesday at 11:50. Judge Candler stated the time to be 11:53.

Matter Comes Up Today.

Today the matter will be taken up, and an aye and nay vote will probably be asked for and taken. The question of adopting the minority report, as amended, will then be for voting upon.

But a new situation arises, which makes it more complex, in the fact that an amendment to the majority report had been accepted, which prescribes that the time limit shall apply to presiding elders, that they shall not serve longer than four years consecutively in that office.

It will be seen, that a conflict arises between the two reports. One says limit the presiding elders, while the other says take off the limit from everything. This shifting of the matter complicates the question, since many men want indefinite pastorates for all preachers, while others want indefinite pastorates for the pastors and a limited term of office for the presiding elders. How the final vote will develop amidst these complexities no human being can foresee, and the probability is that some men will vote differently from their present wishes or expectations.

Experienced parliamentarians say that the majority report as amended will have to be disposed of before the minority report as amended can be taken up for final action. If the majority is enacted into law limiting elders and unlimiting pastors, the matter is settled.

Brilliant Clash of Wits.

The fight over the time limit question is a brilliant display of brains in conflict. Each side moves with great dexterity to gain the advantage. Intensiveness is manifest on every face in the crowded church, and uproarious applause follows any slight gain made by either side. Although the debate is fervent, it is conducted in the utmost spirit of brotherly love, by men who equally are devoted to the church's welfare, and not a word of disparagement is allowed. An indication of the high tone of the debate was witnessed Wednesday, when a speaker likened the arguments of a preceding man to the twistings of a snake. He was vigorously hissed from every section of the house.

In the debate of Wednesday seven men spoke, three favoring the removal of the time limit, while four men opposed it. Those favoring the removal were Rev. George R. Stuart, of Birmingham; Rev. J. E. McDonald, of the Southwest Missouri conference, and Rev. T. E. Sharpe, of the Memphis conference. Those speaking in opposition were Rev. A. J. Lamar, of Nashville, Rev. L. D. Hamilton, of the Memphis conference; Rev. J. J. Stowe, of the Tennessee conference, and Rev. F. W. Brandon, of the North Alabama conference.

Dr. George Stuart's speech carried off the honors of the day and was considered a vote-winner. Commanding in appearance, magnetic in personality, fluent in speech, spontaneous in thought and happy in spirit, he moved the vast audience at his will. Tumultuous applause was given his argument.

Dr. Stuart's Argument.

The gist of his speech is as follows: "Removal of the time limit is a most important issue, and we must guard against oratory appealing to heart, for illogical experience has no weight. Try experience, the bed rock of Methodism. Ten laymen, 20 preachers and five bishops of the Methodist Episcopal church, with one exception, say that unlimited pastorates have helped them. It is a good thing. I am opposed to the dominance of the almanac over the bishops and cabinets. I think intelligent, courageous and conscientious men in the cabinet able to handle any case that may come before them."

A letter from Bishop McCoy, in Rochester, Minn., stated to the conference that he would be able to return home within ten days, and would possibly be able to attend the conference before its adjournment. The committee on episcopacy has wired Bishop McCoy that he will be assigned light work for the coming year.

RAIL SECURITY OWNERS TO RAILWAY DIRECTORS

Letter Regarding the Contract Each Road Is to Make With Government.

Baltimore, Md., May 7.—(Special.)—The National Association of Owners of Railroad Securities, organized a year ago, "to protect and stabilize securities of the carriers of the country," and representing owners of over $4,000,000,000 securities of the railroads, have issued a letter to the directors of railroads now under government control and operation, calling to their attention the fact that they now have the responsibility of representing all classes of securities issued by their respective railroads as the contracting parties on behalf of the owners of the properties in the execution of the proposed contract which each railroad is to make with the government.

Committee Is Formed.

As a result of numerous meetings of the sub-committee of the association and of conferences attended by those having financial interest in the railroads, many of whom also being directors thereof, a committee has been formed known as the "special committee representing owners of railroad securities." This committee is composed as follows: S. Davies Warfield, chairman, president of the Continental Trust company, Baltimore; Gordon Abbott, chairman of board, Old Colony Trust company, Boston; James Brown, of banking firm of Brown Bros. & Co., New York city; Frederick H. Ecker, treasurer of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company, New York; John J. Pulleyn, president, Emigrant Industrial Savings bank, New York.

Counsel for committee: Samuel Untermeyer, B. H. Innes Brown, of Messrs. Hornblower, Miller, Garrison & Potter.

Mr. Warfield, chairman of the committee, who is also president of the National Association of Owners of Railroad Securities, made the following announcement of the purposes of the committee:

"A tentative draft of contract has been submitted by officials of the government, under which the railroads are to be controlled and operated as provided in the railway bill passed by congress, for a period which shall not exceed one year and nine months after the war. This contract deals with questions concerning both operations of the railroads and the conditions under which the owners are to secure compensation for the use of their properties during the period mentioned. This draft of contract has been considered by a committee of lawyers representing the railways executives' advisory committee.

"Upon the final terms of this contract depends the condition of credit generally, as pointed out by President Wilson in his address to congress giving the reasons for governmental operation of the railroads.

What President Wilson Said.

"The president then said: 'One of the strong arguments for assuming control of the railroads at this time is the financial argument. It is necessary that the value of railroad securities should be justly and fairly protected. In the hands of many thousands of small investors in the country, as well as in national banks, in insurance companies, in savings banks, in trust companies, in financial agencies of every kind, railroad securities, the sum total of which runs up to some ten or eleven thousand millions, constitute a vital part of the structure of credit, and the unquestioned validity of that structure must be maintained.

"To afford the opportunity for an expression of opinion on questions which will necessarily arise affecting not only actual owners of railroad securities, also having relations to the conditions necessary to maintain the validity of the structure of credit, this committee has been composed of representatives of various channels for the investment of the funds of the people, savings banks, life insurance companies, investment bankers, large estates and financial institutions. Several members of the committee also serve on boards of directors of railroads, and are familiar with general railroad condition and credit, but none are operative railroad executives.

"This committee desires to co-operate with the government in the framing of the provisions of this contract to be helpful especially in the directions named by President Wilson.

"It is the desire of this committee to also co-operate with any agency which is aiming to produce a contract, to produce a contract satisfactory to the various interests involved."

HARD FIGHT COMING ON COTTON FACTORY IN ATLANTA PRISON

By J. A. Hollomon.

Washington, May 8.—(Special.)—The bill for the establishment of a cotton mill plant in the Atlanta federal penitentiary is destined to meet with stubborn opposition in the house. After the vote on the conference report on the espionage bill Chairman Pou, of the rules committee, sought to place this federal cotton mill bill next on the calendar and it was agreed by the close vote of 60 to 59. To offset the narrow victory of one vote, however, a point of no quorum was made and the house adjourned without definite action.

This test was clearly indicative of the battle that is in store on this measure. The fight will hinge on the old question of free labor in competition with convict labor and the New England members in particular are to take the lead in the offensive. It is understood that organized labor is to turn its batteries against this measure, although it is considered a war item and has the stamp of the president.

WALTER ANDREWS MAKES FORMAL ANNOUNCEMENT

Loyalty and Ability to Serve Administration Only Measure of Fitness, He Says.

State Senator Walter P. Andrews, building his platform upon loyalty, announced Wednesday in a formal statement his candidacy for the seat in congress of Representative William Schley Howard, now a senatorial candidate.

Mr. Andrews' decision to enter the race was made some time ago. His formal statement is the new development.

"The true measure of a man's fitness for a seat in either branch of the national congress is that of his loyalty and efficiency in helping the administration," says the candidate, and upon his claim to measure up to that standard he submits his candidacy.

The statement follows:

To the People and Voters of the Fifth Congressional District:

I have already authorized the publication of a statement to the effect that I will be a candidate for a seat in the lower house of the next congress as the representative of the fifth congressional district of Georgia.

This district, comprising Fulton, DeKalb, Rockdale, Campbell and Douglas counties, is one of the most important in the entire United States, and I am deeply conscious of the responsibilities that will devolve upon me, if elected by the people to represent them in the national congress, especially as this district has been so ably represented for many years in the past.

It is the custom, I know, for a candidate to prepare and enunciate a platform of principles upon which to base his candidacy, but at this time I do not consider that there is a multiplicity of issues involved, except incidentally and as corollary to the main issue.

The one thought, the paramount purpose, of the American people today is to win the war and to preserve for ourselves and future generations the national honor, integrity, prestige and liberty that we have inherited from our forefathers, and do our part in making the world safe for democracy and fit to live in.

The true measure of a man's fitness for a seat in either branch of the national congress, at this time, is that of his loyalty and efficiency in helping the administration to achieve victory for ourselves and our allies.

If elected to congress I shall use every particle of my ability and energy in serving all of the people of my district, and will exert myself to the utmost in aiding the government and holding up the hands of the president in this hour of national crisis.

That is the paramount issue before the American people today, and until that is solved in favor of liberty everything else must take a secondary position.

I shall endeavor as far as possible to personally meet and greet the voters and the people of all sections of this district and to discuss with them the situation as the days may bring their new developments.

I shall ever be mindful of the fact that the true status of a chosen representative of the people is that of servant and not master; and to do the will of the people whom I represent shall at all times be my earnest desire and pleasure. I hope to merit and receive the cordial support of the voters and people of all the counties of the fifth congressional district, not on account of my personal ambition, but from an earnest and sincere desire to render service to my constituents and my country.

I cheerfully submit my candidacy to the white voters of the fifth congressional district, subject to the democratic primary and such rules and regulations as it may see fit to promulgate.

WALTER P. ANDREWS.

KAISER CONTINUES IN THANKFUL MOOD TO HIS GERMAN GOD

Berlin, May 8.—(Via Amsterdam.)—Emperor William replied to Chancellor von Hertling's congratulations on the conclusion of peace between Germany and Rumania with this message:

"The termination of the state of war in the east fills me also with proud joy and gratitude. Thanks to God's gracious help, the German people with never-failing patriotism, under brilliant military leadership and with the assistance of strong diplomacy, are fighting step by step for a happy future.

"I cannot but convey my thanks on this occasion to you and also to your collaborators. God will help us to pass through the struggle which the hostile attitude of the powers, still under arms against us, has forced us to continue and to conclude it victoriously for the good of Germany and her allies."

Mayor Will Be Host At Luncheon Today To Honor "Y" Workers

To speed up the recruiting of Army and Navy Y. M. C. A. secretaries, Mayor Asa G. Candler has invited several hundred representative Georgians to luncheon at the chamber of commerce for Friday at 1 p. m.

The luncheon will be given in honor of A. G. Knebel, executive secretary of the war personnel board, National War Work council; Franklin Kirkbride, a prominent New Yorker, who recently returned from overseas as a member of the Y. M. C. A. commission with the American forces; James A. Whitmore, also of the recent commission, returned from "over there," and Douglas Elliman, of New York city, member of the National War Work council.

During April the Army and Navy Y. M. C. A. secured from the entire United States 650 secretaries for service overseas, while 1,000 recruits were needed. On May 1 the Red Triangle organization was short 1,452 men who must be secured from American during May.

Bank and trust companies will report tomorrow to federal reserve banks the Liberty Loan subscriptions filed with them and reserve banks have been instructed to complete their tabulations and report to the treasury by next Monday.

Success of Women in Bond Selling.

The success of women in bond selling is emphasized in reports reaching headquarters here. In Delaware, the only state to double its quota, women sold 130 per cent of the state's quota. Incomplete returns to the national women's Liberty Loan committee indicated that women of Arizona gathered 77 per cent of the state's quota, while those of Kentucky, Missouri and West Virginia got nearly 50 per cent. Women of North Carolina, Virginia, Indiana, Pennsylvania and Montana were credited with selling one-third or more of the state quotas, working through the men's organizations. In South Carolina, Illinois, Kansas, Nevada and New Mexico women reported having sold one-quarter of the state quotas. Women of most other states did not segregate their sales.

In Philadelphia women reported $53,000,000 subscriptions, Chicago $25,000,000, St. Louis $10,000,000, Pittsburg $35,000,000, Cincinnati $4,132,400, Richmond, Va., $3,382,000, Washington $4,000,000 and Kansas City $8,287,000.

A message from Shanghai, China, today said $606,900 in subscriptions had been taken there, and the treasury probably will send an honor flag to the American loan committee.

RESOLUTION ADOPTED ASKING COUNCIL TO ENACT ORDINANCE REQUIRING CARD SYSTEM.

In view of the unprecedented shortage of labor and the alleged fact that many loiterers and idlers are to be seen on the streets of this city, the Atlanta board of police commissioners Wednesday night proposed that every man in the city should be put to work, and requested the city fathers to pass legislation that would not only require each man to have employment, but to be able to show that he is employed by exhibiting a card signed by his employer, when called upon to do so by the police authorities.

The card system is not alone aimed at the negro loiterers, but the commissioners said that it would affect a great number of white men, frequent idlers, who if authority were given to police authorities to demand their card would be compelled to show whether they were employed, and if not, arrested, which would prove to be an effective means of solving the labor problem.

Pending action on their proposal to council the commissioners adopted a resolution asking that the members of the police department be instructed to rigidly enforce the laws now affecting idlers.

The committee adopted the following tentative report of the special committee appointed by the board of police commisioners to investigate the detective department:

Hon. Board of Police Commissioners, City of Atlanta—Gentlemen: Your committee appointed to investigate the operations of the detective department beg leave to submit the following report:

We have about completed the taking of testimony, and after consultation with other members of the board who have been with us part of the hearings, have agreed upon a tentative report, which we had expected to complete and submit to the board at its regular meeting on the 14th instant.

However, the city council, at its session last Monday, passed a resolution appointing a committee from that body to make an investigation of the entire police department, and that committee has met and organized and has asked this committee to co-operate with it in the work it proposes to carry on.

We, therefore, feel that it is right and proper that due consideration be given to the request of the council committee, and that out of respect to its operations, our committee do not report until sufficient time has elapsed for it to make investigations.

For these reasons we respectfully suggest that this board authorize its committee to co-operate with the council committee in its work.

TICKETS FOR FARRAR CONCERT SELL FRIDAY

That Geraldine Farrar still maintains her hold upon the people of Atlanta from the days of her overwhelming opera triumphs in this city, has been manifested by the eagerness with which the announcement of her recital at the Auditorium on the 16th has been received.

With Hackett, the American tenor, and Malkin, the first cellist of the Boston Symphony orchestra, she will hold a miniature opera season for the music lovers of the city. Preparations are now under way for many box parties and other social affairs.

People from surrounding cities are making inquiries in the fashion of opera week, and it is evident that there will be a very large out-of-town patronage, with numerous Atlantans entertaining for visitors.

Her Atlanta appearance is being made under the auspices of the Atlanta Music Study club, which promoted so successfully the Civic Concert series during the past winter.

Tickets will go on sale for her concert on Friday morning at the Cable Piano company.

Miss Farrar's concert brings to its close a most successful concert series. It is the last time that music lovers will have an opportunity of hearing a major artist until next fall.

REPORT DECEPTIVE, STATES ARKWRIGHT

Citizen-Council Committee Presented Partial Statements of Truth With Wilful Intent to Deceive, Says Power Company Head.

Characterizing portions of the report rendered by the citizen-council committee with reference to the rate increase of the Georgia Railway and Power company, as "partial statements of the truth only, and presented with a wilful intent to deceive," Preston S. Arkwright, president of the Georgia Railway and Power company, yesterday gave out a statements in which he presents the company's side of the controversy.

"The committee was not appointed to ascertain the truth," asserts Mr. Arkwright, and the alleged erroneous figures that were given by the report did not surprise the president of the street railway company, who said "they look remarkably like some of the figures published in the strikers' propaganda in a now defunct paper called 'The Way,' the one-time editor of which is known to have paid a visit to Atlanta just before the report was filed."

Mr. Arkwright declares that the committee was appointed for the purpose of investigating, but that not one of its members applied to the Georgia Railway and Power company for information, and indicates that the assumed purpose of the committee is not to investigate and ascertain the truth thereby, but to make war upon the Georgia Railway and Power company.

"The statement as to the company's capitalization is a palpable misrepresentation, if not intended to be wilfully false," declared Mr. Arkwright. The statement of Mr. Arkwright, which goes into detail with reference to the alleged misrepresentations he asserts the committee report has made, is as follows:

Statement by Arkwright.

Mr. Arkwright's Statement.

The statement of Mr. Arkwright in reply to the people's committee is as follows:

"When prejudice reaches the point of misrepresentation and that partial truth which is often worse than falsehood, it seems almost useless to reply to it.

"I am going to say just a word, however, in order that those of the public who are open-minded and inclined to be fair may better understand the condition presented by the appointment of the so-called people's committee and its report to the city council, in which it has so clearly disclosed its hand.

"Although the public was led to believe in the outset that the intent of the committee was to 'investigate' with some degree of fairness, we were not deceived by that announcement. This committee now comes out openly in its report to council as a committee of opposition to the petition of the Georgia Railway and Power company, regardless of the conditions it has to contend with. It has asked and obtained the consent of council to 'be continued and empowered to take steps to prevent any increases' in the rates paid to this company, regardless of the company's inability to render essential service at present rates; regardless of what may be the fate of its properties, if the increases are not granted.

"Neither this committee nor any individual member of it once asked any officer of this company for any figures or any information regarding its status or condition.

Committee's Attitude.

"The committee's attitude and its report too clearly disclose to need any comment that it was appointed for a purpose—not to investigate and ascertain the truth, but to make war upon the Georgia Railway and Power company with regard to the truth. Each member of it was apparently selected because of his known prejudice against this company and its interests. Bolshevikism could not more cleverly have chosen in marking its pathway to destruction.

"It is as if the 'strike' leaders, unable to paralyze this company's service to the public, as they vainly attempted to do, had found what they thought a good opportunity to hit back, and were seeking to make the most of it.

"As to where they got their figures we can only guess. But they look remarkably like some figures that were published in the strikers' propaganda in a now defunct paper called 'The Way.' The one-time editor of that paper is known to have paid a visit to Atlanta just before that report was filed. Are we to conclude that he wrote it or, at least, furnished the information to go into it?

"Intent to Deceive."

"The figures given in that report as to gross earnings, operating expenses and net operating revenue, for the information of the public, are a partial statement of the truth only, and presented with a wilful intent to deceive.

"The statement given as to the company's capitalization is a palpable misrepresentation, if not intended to be wilfully false.

"The effort clearly is to make the public believe that net operating revenue is the same as net earnings, and that this company has made a great deal of money.

"The committee has purposely taken no account whatever of interest, depreciation and the other necessary expenses of this company which, in its best years, have reduced its net earnings to very much smaller figures than those given, and which, in 1917, turned net earnings into a deficit of nearly $470,000.

"But it was what we expected. No sooner had we read the names of this 'representative' committee, than we predicted the nature and tenor of its report. This, perhaps, explains why one or two known fair-minded citizens of Atlanta, who were asked to serve upon it, no doubt for purpose of camouflage, politely declined to have anything to do with it.

"The Georgia Railway and Power company will make its full showing before the Georgia railroad commission at the proper time. It will show why it cannot continue to render necessary service at present rates and remain in business.

"It will make this showing in the hope and belief, at least, that the sentiment of the majority of the public is not represented by a committee which stands for strikes and destruction, and which has already, without investigation, prejudged the case.

"It will do so, too, in the belief that it will be accorded an impartial hearing and a decision fairly in accord with the facts presented.

(Signed) "P. S. ARKWRIGHT,
"President Georgia Railway and Power Company."

Uncle Remus Association Holds Interesting Meeting.

A very enthusiastic meeting was that of the Uncle Remus association at Carnegie library on Tuesday afternoon. The members of this association who are kept busy with the various war activities of the city still find time to hold their monthly meetings, and Tuesday's meeting was largely attended.

Mrs. J. O. Evans was appointed chairman for the celebration of Joel Chandler Harris' birthday throughout Minnesota and Mrs. Arrowood, of Illinois, formerly of Atlanta, was appointed chairman for Illinois. Mrs. Arrowood was a guest of the afternoon and gave a very interesting talk. She informed her audience that Miss Aline Simmons, an accomplished reader, formerly of this city, was now doing professional work in Illinois, using the Uncle Remus stories and appearing in costume.

Mrs. Horine spoke very feelingly of the suffering in Belgium and France and the adoption of French orphans. At the conclusion it was decided that a little French boy be adopted by the association, and hereafter designated as "Remus La Rose," in memory of the beloved Uncle Remus, and in compliment to Mrs. Joel Chandler Harris, who was formerly Miss La Rose.

This is but an initial step, as it is the intention of the organization to adopt several of these French children. So, with the purchase of Liberty bonds and the good work being done by these busy women, the Uncle Remus association has developed into an organization of many ambitions, and is at present arranging for the annual May festival to be given at the Wren's Nest to replete the treasury so that they can extend their work. This patriotic event will take place on Saturday afternoon, May 18.

War-Time Hints for the Housekeeper

Tying Up Bundles

By LILY REYNOLDS, of Atlanta.
Written especially for The Constitution.

So many packages are being sent about in these war times and the state of utter ruin in which many of them are reduced when received seem to make it worth while to add to the pleas of the mail and express companies authorities for careful packing, yet other urging.

I have noticed that most persons in tying a package are content to simply twist the string in crossing it to put it around the other way, which is very poor security, as you may prove by mashing the bundle a little. If it is at all yielding, the cord will loosen and slip off and the contents fall out. Have strong paper and string, and when you have wrapped your merchandise or stuff with care, put your string around it tightly in the way requiring most security, and tie in a hard knot (and unless the string gets out that will never slip off), and each time around tie in a hard knot. If the cord is strong twice each way will hold it securely; if the cord is little, put enough rounds in, tying each one separately. I emphasize the tying, for that is the mainstay of the whole business, but strong paper is of next importance.

F. C. WOODALL WILL RUN FOR COUNCIL IN THIRD

Woodall, who represented the third war in council for one term, retiring at the close of the year 1916, announced Wednesday that he would be a candidate from that ward in the municipal primary on July 10. SORE FEET

Corns and Ingrowing Nails

Skin specialists have discovered that painful, perspiring and swollen feet with corns, bunions and ingrowing nails are all caused by germs which grow in the pores of the skin, causing decay of the cuticle, rawness, eczema, inflammation and odor. These germs are instantly destroyed by Eucapine, the antiseptic, healing salve, applied after bathing at bedtime. Eucapine draws out all the inflammation and soreness before morning, destroys the germs and quickly restores health to the skin and nails. Get a family jar, only 25c, at all drug stores.

Thousand Vacant Lots Become War Gardens By Committee's Work

Notable work has been done in Atlanta this year by the Atlanta Federation of Women's Clubs to aid hundreds of gardeners in the city to meet the coming bare winter months with a supply of canned home-grown vegetables that will ward off the sharp blow of war-time prices. As chairman of the war garden committee of the women's clubs, Mrs. Alfred C. Wilson has worked incessantly to make a success of the vacant lot garden movement, and how well she and the other workers of the federation and committee have done is shown by a summary given out Wednesday of the work of the federation this year.

One thousand vacant lot gardens are now in process of cultivation under the auspices of the federation. Twenty thousand cabbage and tomato plants have been distributed free, as well as 1,500 packages of seed. In addition the committee has given to gardeners 23 bushels of potatoes, corn, onions and field peas. The report states that Mrs. W. L. Peel was instrumental in securing ten tons of commercial fertilizer which were donated to the committee and parceled out where needed. She also had three plows donated, which can be used to good advantage this summer.

The following ward chairmen are complimented for their active work in the campaign: Miss Julia Riordan, Mrs. R. L. Haire, Mrs. L. D. Rauschenburg, Mrs. W. R. Jester, Mrs. J. E. Oxford, Miss Carrie Kirtley, Mrs. Jerome Jones, Mrs. R. L. Campbell and Mrs. A. G. Palmer. The various seed companies were also commended for their donations.

Besides Mrs. Wilson the garden committee is composed of Mrs. Hugh Richardson, Mrs. Preston Arkwright, Mrs. A. McD. Wilson, Mrs. W. L. Percy, Mrs. S. B. Turman, Mrs. Newton C. Wing and Miss Carrie Kirtley.

CAPT. E. H. TALIAFERRO WEDS MLLE. TOURNIER

In the recent issue of the "Oo La La Times," a paper which is published in France by the Seventeenth Regiment of Engineers, there is an account of one of the war's rosiest romances—the marriage of an American captain to a young woman of France. The captain in question is Edward H. Taliaferro, of the Seventeenth Engineers, and his bride before her marriage was Mlle. Marguerite Tournier, the very charming daughter of Commandant and Madame Tournier. The wedding was distinctly a "military affair" and many American and French officers were in attendance at the ceremony.

New Manager Named.

T. J. Trodden has been appointed manager of the local branch of the National Biscuit company. Mr. Trodden began his career in the company as a salesman at Washington, D. C., in 1905. In December, 1910, he was promoted to the position of local manager at Texarkana, Texas. In 1915 he was advanced to manager at Petersburg, Va., and in 1917 promoted to position of special representative of the general sales department in New York, and now comes his latest promotion in this city.

Mrs. Samuel Lumpkin Heads Women Workers In Red Cross Drive

Organization of the woman's committee for the Atlanta Red Cross campaign will begin today, when the executive committee will meet with Mrs. Samuel Lumpkin, newly-appointed executive chairman of the woman's committee, and discuss plans for the campaign.

Mrs. Lumpkin's acceptance of the appointment was received with great pleasure by the executive committee, as her success at the head of the woman's department of the Southeastern fair has proved her ability as an organizer and an executive. Mrs. Lumpkin will open offices in the Chamber of Commerce building.

The two women generals of the Red and Blue armies which will canvass the residence districts will be appointed this week by Mrs. Lumpkin in cooperation with the men's committee.

Chairman Edwin F. Johnson yesterday began sending out to Atlanta business houses the blanks for recording subscriptions to the Red Cross fund by employees. It is expected that complete lists will be made up in this way, with every employee contributing, and that these will be supplied the canvassers when they call.

Probably the most unusual feature of the Red Cross campaign will be the work of Yaarab Temple, Mystic Shrine, which will go outside of its own field for the first time in its history and engage officially in a public movement. Thursday, May 23, will be Red Cross Shrine day, when all the nobles of Yaarab will go out on a big "clean-up" campaign covering all of Atlanta and Fulton and DeKalb counties.

Red Cross Officials Discuss Treatment of Tubercular Soldiers

A meeting was held Wednesday morning in the offices of J. C. Logan, director of the home service corps, southern division, Red Cross, by the representatives of the state boards of health in the southern division, consisting of North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Florida and Georgia, of the Raoul foundation, and the state and city anti-tuberculosis societies.

The purpose of the meeting was discussion of the responsibility that rests upon each of the above organizations for the soldiers who are discharged because of tuberculosis, and for the tubercular members of soldiers' families.

The Red Cross, while not responsible for rejected soldiers, is endeavoring to co-operate with other organizations in looking after the unfortunates not able to get into the army because of tubercular troubles.

Those present at the meeting were: Dr. F. B. McBrayer, head of the North Carolina sanitarium and secretary of the Anti-Tuberculosis league of that state; Miss Annie Rembert, representative of the South Carolina board of health; J. P. Kranz, representative of Tennessee Anti-Tuberculosis society; Dr. Abercrombie, of the state board of health of Georgia; Dr. J. P. Faulkner, of the Raoul foundation; Dr. Schroeder, superintendent of Alto sanitarium for tuberculosis; Dr. Bradford, superintendent of the Battle Hill tuberculosis sanitarium; Miss Rosa Lowe and Miss Nell Brown, of the Atlanta Anti-Tuberculosis society; J. C. Logan and H. W. Odum, supervisor home service corps, Red Cross, for Georgia.

D. A. R. Protests Burial of Germans With American Dead

The twenty-seventh continental congress, Daughters of the American Revolution, recently held in Washington, D. C., unanimously adopted a resolution presented by Mrs. Frances Brown Chase, of Atlanta, protesting against the burial of German subjects who died in the United States in our national cemeteries. Mrs. Chase and Mrs. S. W. Foster, also of Atlanta, were delegates to the congress.

Mrs. Chase's resolution was prompted by the recent burial in the National cemetery at Marietta, Ga., of two German prisoners who died while in confinement at Fort McPherson. They were accorded a military funeral, their bodies were wrapped in the German flag, and a salute was fired over their graves by American soldiers.

The resolution continues in protest, that the cemeteries provided to bury our own heroic dead should not become a resting place for the enemies of our country, especially our German foes, who have displayed so great disregard for human rights and have visited upon innocent women and children such gross and brutal atrocities.

HAPEVILLE SCOUTS TO HEAR SASNETT

A unique entertainment will be conducted Thursday night at the Hapeville school auditorium by J. Randolph Sasnett, of Seattle, for the purpose of assisting the Hapeville Boy Scout troop to complete the quota of 10,000 dollars, which it pledged itself to raise during the third Liberty Loan campaign. Mr. Sasnett will present over 100 stereopticon slides as part of the entertainment.

The slides will consist of beautiful scenes from Yellowstone and Glacier Parks, Alaska, Puget Sound, the Canadian Rockies and other places of interest, all colored in their natural hues. A miniature automobile belonging to the scouts will be auctioned off, the proceeds of which will be added to those of the entertainment and invested in Liberty Bonds.

CLEAR SKIES PROMISED FOR ATLANTA TODAY

Weather Forecaster von Herrmann proposes to continue to hand out generally fair weather, even though it is sandwiched with showers. It will be fair in Atlanta and vicinity today.

Although the weather continues more or less cloudy in the cotton belt there is no indication of a storm formation, and the only rainfall reported was in the form of local showers in Tennessee, North Carolina and extreme northern Georgia. An area of low pressure exists, however, in the extreme west over the central plateau region.

Temperatures continue quite high in the south, exceeding 70 degrees at 7 a. m. over most of Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas and Mississippi, and it is also quite warm along the entire Atlantic coast line, even Boston reporting as high as 72 degrees at 7 a. m. It is coldest in the Lake Superior district. Except in the south, skies are mostly clear and indications are favorable for fair weather rather than rain during the next 36 hours.

ONLY CORN BREAD USED ON SOUTHERN DINERS

Corn bread is the only kind of bread that a traveler can obtain nowadays on the Southern railway dining cars, the use of wheat having been eliminated entirely from the menus as the result of the management's determination to help the food administration save all the wheat for the fighting forces.

Every meal is a wheatless meal and in the place of bread and deserts in which wheat has been used, the Southern, according to Dining Car Agent E. H. Rosecrans, located in Atlanta, is now serving corn bread, muffins, corn sticks and all the corn dishes prepared in the many forms well known in the south.

FIGHTING ILLITERACY.

Governor Whitman, of New York, has announced that he would sign three bills recently passed by the legislature, aimed to stamp out illiteracy in that state.

One of the measures requires that every boy or girl between 16 and 21 years of age, who cannot speak, read or write the English language, as required for the completion of the fifth grade in public or private schools, must attend some day or night school, under the supervision of local authorities, until this degree of knowledge is acquired.

Another of the bills provides for public night schools for the education of such illiterate boys and girls in cities of the first class during the day school term; in cities of the second class on at least 100 nights during the school year, and at least on eighty nights in cities of the third class; and all such schools are to be free. In addition, the act provides for the maintenance of free kindergartens in all school districts.

The third act makes a state appropriation of $20,000 with which the state commissioner of education is to maintain training institutes in normal schools and in the cities of the state for training "regular public school teachers and others" in the best methods of giving instruction to illiterates over sixteen years of age.

The governor was shown that his state contains 72,000 non-English-speaking and illiterate minors within the purview of the proposed laws; and that there are 300,000 non-English-speaking and illiterate men and women in the state who may avail themselves of the schools contemplated, but whose attendance is not to be compulsory. Opposition to this anti-illiteracy program in the legislature is said to have been negligible.

All of which is, of course, of little concern to Georgia readers of this newspaper except in that—

New York is near the top of the states in point of educational efficiency and near the bottom in point of proportionate illiteracy.

Reverse those two positions and they just about fit Georgia!

If New York, with almost a minimum of illiteracy, can afford to take such a step to eradicate what little illiteracy it has, how much more would it become Georgia, with a maximum of illiteracy per capita—to take similar steps to wipe out the disgrace of its record in illiteracy.

New York's illiterates are mainly among its alien and foreign-born population, citizens who perhaps are proficient in their native tongue, while our illiteracy is confined to "home stock"—to Georgia born and Georgia bred boys and girls and men and women who know nothing of any foreign language, and who have never had a chance to acquire even a rudimentary, working knowledge of the English!

Here is a wonderful opportunity for Georgia.

THE IDLER'S HAZARD.

The able-bodied man of today who is not working is, while idling away his time, engaged in a mighty hazardous business.

In other words, he is in danger of having his liberty taken from him, to say the least. And that is what ought to happen to him—refusing to work voluntarily, he should be corraled by the law, harnessed and put to work under guard for the community in which he lives and eats.

Garbed in the terrorizing raiment of the Ku-Klux Klan, a band of about 150 men, carrying an American flag and a fiery cross, rode through the streets of Birmingham last Tuesday night, warning idlers and habitual loafers to find work to do and to do it, and that no idleness would longer be permitted.

The warning was altogether appropriate to the times, and was, no doubt, well meant; but it is not for any lay organization or a mob nor for any agency outside of the law to carry out its purposes.

Bad as idleness is for a community, outlawry and mob violence is worse. Neither should be permitted.

Alabama, it is to be presumed, like every other state, has law sufficient to stamp out idleness—especially idleness in time of war when there is urgent need for the services of every able-bodied man in the country—and all that is needed is enforcement of the law by an orderly and legal process.

Therefore, it is to be hoped that the activities of the Birmingham night riders will go no further.

In which event their warning by the unusual and startling method employed will do good.

A WORD FOR THE "SISTERS."

The Methodist conference, in session in Atlanta, has before it a memorial presented by the Woman's Missionary council, asking that the discipline be so amended as to grant to the women of the church organization the same recognition in all of the affairs of the church as is accorded its men; which, of course, implies the right to hold office on a parity with men.

It is predicted by the publicity spokesman of the conference, Rev. Thomas M. Elliott, that "the proposition will probably bring on one of the liveliest debates of the entire conference session."

The time has come in the progress and general development of society when womanhood has got to be recognized by any organization—religious, political, social or otherwise—which accords women membership, if it hopes to maintain its status in society and functionate to the limit of its possibilities for the good. And any organization which refuses such recognition, in doing so flies in the face of the irresistible tendency of the times and plants itself squarely in the path of progress.

Rev. H. D. Knickerbocker, of Texas, said to be the highest salaried preacher in Methodism, is quoted as having said in a speech Tuesday—

> I would feel forever condemned if I folded my hands piously over my gastronomical apparatus and let some "Grandma Nancy" or "Sister Susan" be put into an office that should have been filled by a man.

Assuming, of course, that Dr. Knickerbocker meant woman generally and employed "Grandma Nancy" and "Sister Susan" only for rhetorical effect, it is pertinent to ask whence comes the strength and the power of the Methodist or any other church greater than that it obtains from its womanhood?

What has kept Christian religion alive in the world more than the work and influence of womanhood?

But for woman, the preachers, Methodist or of any other, would not have a pulpit in which to preach!

To whom does the minister appeal when things go wrong in his pastorate?

When the roof spring a leak; when a new carpet is needed, or when the minister's salary falls in arrears, who raises the remedial funds—but the women of the church?

The church needs a steeple, or a bell, or a coat of paint; the women are called into conference and the matter is laid before them. A "church fair," or a "bazar," or a "festival" of some sort is the result; the necessary money is raised and the church want supplied—by the women!

Money is needed for a local charity purpose; and the women of the church get busy and raise it! The foreign missionary fund runs low; the women replenish it!

Without the influence of women church morale would be seriously impaired, and, morale gone, the church would crumble!

The real pillar of the Christian religion today is woman—and that she should longer be barred from official position in the church, and forbidden the right to a vote or a voice in the government of that which she is such a potent and essential force in maintaining, is not in keeping with the spirit of the times.

Given equal opportunities, woman has abundantly proven herself man's equal mentally and intellectually; and certainly she is his equal morally. Then, why should equal rights to develop—to the expansion of her sphere and her latent capabilities—be denied her, especially by the church?

Wear patched shoes? Sure! And hit licks for the leather to patch 'em, too!

The Germans claim to have "a new gas," but it's the same old uncamouflaged brag.

Germany understands now that the shall-not-pass sign means the same in all languages.

If the Germans are really "tired of gas," they'll stop Hindenburg from talking through his helmet.

Whatever be the malady from which the kaiser is suffering it's mild compared to the great stroke that's coming to him.

Kaiser's latest boast was that he was "filled with proud joy," which is far from filling to the hungry at home.

Going over the Liberty loan top comes easier with every effort, and the patriotic cry is—"Give us another hill to climb!"

Whenever there is mention of a "Fathers' Day" the home-folks begin to wonder how they can spare him money enough to pay for it.

The Osborne Farmer notes that "if every sermon your minister preached was an original masterpiece you wouldn't be getting him for $900 a year."

Thrift Work in Atlanta Public Schools

Greenwood School.

The boys and girls of Atlanta are beginning to realize the real meaning of the word "thrift"—not expressed in quarters and stamps only, but in everyday living—saving because waste is wrong. This principle has gone past the children into many careless households. When an 8-year-old boy sends a letter to his father telling him that "just one stamp puts a gallon of gas into an ambulance," more interest is aroused than by the greatest speech an orator could make. That father usuallly sees that several gallons of gas may be bought—perhaps at a slight sacrifice to himself.

One little girl was given a large box of candy on her birthday. She asked her father if he minded getting a small box and giving her the difference for thrift stamps. That request bore fruit. The father bought a bond for her!

We feel that the thrift work requires careful guiding. A child should feel that he is a vital part of the home, and that some duties and responsibilities are his without "pay" in money. To pay him for all home tasks is to destroy that feeling of responsibility—and yet, he has very few ways in which to earn money outside the home. It is for the mother and teacher to make these points clear to the child, which is a very delicate adjustment. Most children in this school are given allowances. The real test of the teaching is how much of this are they willing to save.

Parents, in their interest and desire to help, often overpay the children for tasks done, thus giving the wrong standards of money value. One second-grade boy brought a dollar that he thought he had earned by cleaning the yards. His teacher found that he had devoted only a small part of his play time to the work. That mother would have given a much better lesson to the child if she had paid him a dime for the actual work and explained that the 90 cents was given because of the great movement for which he is working.

We wanted a 100 per cent membership. Again we were confronted by a problem, for a child to put a few stamps into a book is not thrift, but actual waste, unless the book is filled. We have to watch those books, and a child recognizes a manufactured job. It has to be a real job if he is helped to earn his stamps without loss of self-respect.

The great interest that the children are taking makes the everyday work easier for him and for his teacher. A composition is a real pleasure when a child is asked to tell how he earned his money, how we may save, or to exploit his own ideas of what a "regular" play ought to be. He dresses thrift up in many guises, but always as a wonderful character. He enjoys his posters and his letters to a French child, telling of his efforts to save and help.

A kindly spirit of competition has been carried on by the children. Two boys were racing for stars on the honor roll. Both owned animals dear to a boy's heart. One boy sold his goat, bringing the four dollars to invest in stamps. Straightway the other goat disappeared, and the second boy brought five dollars, with much pride in being a better business man!

One father made the following proposition to his boy: For every A on report cards he would give a dollar, for every B 50 cents, for every C the boy returned 50 cents to his father, and for every D he returns a dollar. This gives the boy another motive for hard work, since it increases his own thrift fund, the amount from his grade, the total for his school, and makes him a real unit in a great cause.

Homes Are Conserving Man Power By Hospitality Shown Soldiers

—Raymond B. Fosdick.

Washington, April 8.—Statements that home entertainments and recreation provided for soldiers and sailors in cities and towns near army and navy camps are impairing the efficiency of the men were emphatically denied today by Raymond B. Fosdick, chairman of the War and Navy Departments' Commissions on Training Camp Activities. He characterized as a direct contradiction of the government's policy the admonition that "the time has come for the public to 'keep hands off' our men in service!"

"That time has no more come," Mr. Fosdick declared, "than the time has come to stop conserving wheat or supporting government loans. Indeed, the preservation of normal social relationships between the public and the men in training is an essential part of our military program."

The statements calling forth Mr. Fosdic's denial were made in an editorial published in the May issue of The Ladies' Home Journal. The editorial declared that the entertainment of soldiers and sailors in private homes of war camp communities is proving detrimental to the men in service, and that over 90 per cent of the social functions provided for the men outside of the camps have taken the form of dances, which, kept up till all hours, sent them back to camp impaired in physical vitality. It concluded with the injunction that the time had come for the public to keep its hands off the men in service.

Influence of Homes Wholesome.

"It is not true that 'the entertainment of the men in service in private homes has resulted to the detriment of the men instead of to their benefit,'" Mr. Fosdick stated. "There has been no change in the attitude of the government toward home hospitality. In fact, with hundreds of thousands of men pouring into the training camps, the government desires more than ever that the people of America continue to offer to them the wholesome influences of their homes.

"Naturally in the entertainment of thousands of men in private homes there have been some instances of hospitality everdone or taken advantage of. Some women, unwisely, have flooded soldiers with sweets and unnecessary 'comforts,' and have written doleful letters to their boys. These things and the 'godmother' idea are justifiably discouraged. But a sharp distinction should be drawn between pink-tea sentimentality toward the soldier and the organized hospitality which is supervised by the government.

"The recreation provided in camp communities is not a hit-or-miss affair. Known all over as the War Camp Community Service, it was long ago established by the Recreation Association of America, at the request of the war and navy departments. This town hospitality for the men in service is mobilized by nearly two hundred trained workers. It is supervised by the war and navy departments through the Commissions on Training Camp Activities, which is just as responsible for the activities outside of the camps as for those of the Y. M. C. A., Knights of Columbus and other agencies inside the camps."

Answering the assertion that "over 90 per cent of the social functions provided for the men outside of the camps have taken the form of dances, which, keeping up until all hours, impair the physical vitality of the men," Mr. Fosdick said: "This is mere speculation. Dances do not constitute an overwhelming proportion of the recreation program. Athletic meets, community sings, concerts, church socials, automobile rides, home hospitality and many other forms of entertainment are provided. Dances almost always take place Saturday nights—not often enough to impair their vitality.

"To eradicate vice not only by repression, but by the substitution of attractive and healthful diversions is the great purpose of the commissions. Any slight temporary ill-effects resulting incidentally from the system of recreation in and about camps are negligible compared with the remarkable decrease in venereal disease rate obtained thereby.

"Man power will win the war, and we depend upon the American home in conserving this power. As President Wilson has said: 'The spirit with which our soldiers leave America, and their efficiency on the battle fronts of Europe, will be vitally affected by the character of the environment surrounding our military training camps.'"

Fosdick's Statement Indorsed.

When the above Washington dispatch was called to the attention of Victor H. Kriegshaber, president of the Atlanta War Camp Community Service, he stated that the local body, which has been carrying forward the entertainment of the men at camp, was thoroughly in accord with the ideas expressed by Mr. Fosdick.

Instead of lessening their efforts for soldier entertainment in the home and elsewhere, Mr. Kriegshaber declared that efforts were being redoubled to reach more men than ever with the wholesome, healthful type of amusement that had been furnished them in the immediate past. The results which have been achieved in Atlanta have merited the approbation of army officers and Washington officials alike.

Much distress had been occasioned the local committee by the publication of the editorial in The Ladies' Home Journal; and members of the committee welcome the refutation of the charges which Mr. Fosdick's article brings.

THE KAISER'S LAMENT

With acknowledgment to the photoplay, "The Beast of Berlin," and The Constitution editorial of April 20, which begins: "As he stood viewing the work of his hand—the unspeakable carnage on the battlefield near Cambrai—the Hun kaiser, overawed by the bloody prospect, is quoted as having remarked to an officer companion: "What have I not done to preserve the world from these horrors!"

By Myrta Lockett Avary.

I taught My sons the goosestep
As soon as they could walk,
And made them lisp in terms of war
Before they well could talk.
I had the Prussian children,
Where'er they went to school,
Brought up in strict compliance
With military rule.
I fashioned all My Empire
Into an armed camp,
And placed upon its daily life,
The military stamp.

I built Me a big war chest
And filled it up with gold;
Yea, from My people's hands I took
As much as it could hold.
I staged them martial pageants
Where mimic wars were fought.
My people's thoughts and fancies
With martial themes I caught.
I fostered Krupp, My maker
Of guns of monstrous size,
And Zeppelin I honored
For warships in the skies.

Of U. S. A. I bought Me
The nifty submarine,
And of the other nations,
As soon as it was seen,
Each neat device, in war that I
Could use to make men groan and die,
Children to weep, women to quail
Manhood and motherhood to fail.
And thus I taught and thus I wrought
While foolishly all others thought
The world had grown too civilized
For arts of war to be well prized.

For partner in My glorious work,
With subtlety I won the Turk,
As brother Abdul Hamid hailed.
In Palestine I preached. Nor failed
As Head of Christendom to pose,
The Lord's Anointed Minister
By God's decree. Thus, sinister
No man could think, Me or My Throne.
And when the time was ripe, My Word
I made as God's and drew My Sword.
No sword was ready then but Mine!
With light from Eblis did it shine;
I called it light of Heaven divine

Of all the peoples of this earth,
Only My people stood prepared,
Only My people felt war worth
The cost when for the fray they bared
Their arms to strike the mighty blow
From which the whole round world should reel
Until it fell tamed, bleeding, beat,
Beneath the Hohenzollern heel!

All this I did, yet in despite,
Nations presume with Me to fight.
In spite of all the "Peace" I cry,
Than have My "Peace" their sons would die!
They ring Me round, they pledge My fall,
They seek to drive Me to the wall!
The spirit that I did evoke
Fronts Me and gives Me stroke for stroke.
It will not yield, it will not down!
I'd slay the world to save My Crown!

State Public Health Department to Get Three New Workers

One laboratory man and two field men additional are assured to the state public health department in its emergency campaign against communicable and social diseases.

Dr. T. F. Abercrombie, secretary of the state board of health, announced Wednesday that Governor Dorsey has extended his authorization for the employment of a state epidemiologist to be paid with state contingent funds. This means that Dr. J. P. Bowdoin, who made a careful tour of the state during April visiting centers of contagious epidemics and instructing local authorities how to combat them, will continue to do this work until July 1. By that time the legislature will be in session and may make a regular appropriation for this work.

The other new announcement is in the fact that the public health service and the army will send a second man to this state to act as a field agent and to specialize in contagious and social diseases. Dr. Abercrombie will go to Washington Friday to make final arrangements for his coming.

One man, a laboratory man, has already been ordered to Georgia by the public health service. He will arrive on Friday and will immediately prepare to give the Wassermann blood test, alleged to be the best test for discovering evidence of social diseases. The public health service announces that Dr. Joseph Bolton will be the man sent here.

Meanwhile the state health department's offensive aimed at the social diseases is also to be carried on through Dr. Faulkner of the Raoul Foundation, who opened the campaign with a recent series of rallies in Macon and then carried the fight to Rome. The next city in the drive will be Savannah, according to Dr. Abercrombie's announcement Wednesday.

The status of communicable diseases in the state is most favorable; it is reported. Smallpox and meningitis epidemics are nearly wiped out, although there are many serious cases still being treated.

The outbreak of dysentery at Surrency has been brought to a standstill, although seven deaths in all were registered before the situation was gotten thoroughly under control.

HEALTH TALKS
BY WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

ERYTHROMELALGIA.

Erythromelalgia means literally big red pain (erythro, red; mel, big, gigantic; algia, ache or pain). It is a condition in which certain parts of the body suffer with pain, flushing and redness, which is worse if the part hangs down. It is usually seen in persons between twenty and forty years old. Symptoms are redness, pain and swelling of a foot or a foot and leg coming on without apparent cause and at irregular times, relieved if the foot and leg are elevated. Sometimes the symptoms remain for a prolonged time.

Here is an instance described by a correspondent:

"Do you know of any way besides deep breathing, massage and fresh air to make one's blood circulate properly? Mine has a habit of stopping in my nose and hands and staying there, burning and pulsating, a combination that is uncomfortable and very annoying, as well. It never occurs when I am breathing cool fresh air, but only indoors when it is warm. Sometimes one or two of my fingers will be pure white and perfectly numb. Aside from this trouble I am perfectly healthy, and would be happy if it were not for this. I am thirty-four years of age."

The pure white fingers ("dead fingers") are a symptom rather of Raynaud's disease, which, like erythromelalgia, is a disturbance of the nerve control which regulates the caliber of the small arteries.

Still a third condition, in the same category, is "giant hives," also known as intermittent edema and angio neurotic edema. (Edema means boggy or watery swelling of tissues—dropsy; angioneurotic means merely blood-vessel-nerve). In this condition localized swellings, resembling great hives, occur in the skin or mucous membranes and last from a few minutes to several hours.

Interesting ailments. But that is about all we can say of them. Their causes are unknown. No known treatment influences them.

So they offer a fine field for theoretical speculation. And how the conductor of this column loves to speculate!

To our mind all three of these angioneroses are dependent upon hypersecretion of adrenin by the adrenal gland, which is intimately concerned in the function of the sympathetic nervous system. Which is dangerously near to saying that the cause is "nervousness."

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

Vaccine and the Rheumatic.

Wish you would tell me something about vaccine injections for rheumatism. Are they given for every kind of rheumatism or just for a certain kind? Are they a complete cure? (Miss M. T.)

ANSWER—"Rheumatism" is a name to apply when the nature of the disease is not known. But, assuming the doctor has found the septic focus, say, in the pelvis, in the form of an old abscess there, he may have a vaccine prepared from the bacteria isolated from the focus and administer the vaccine to the patient, sometimes with marked benefit. Injecting ready-made vaccine in a blind fashion for anything and everything that masquerades as rheumatism is about as likely to help the patient as is the average concoction which purports to be good for "rheumatism."

How Tapeworms Come and Go.

I am a woman aged 29, and would like some of your sound advice. I have come to the conclusion that I have a tapeworm, and wish you would send me a safe prescription. I have eaten many bananas, and I love raisins. Did that start the tapeworm? Please include complete instructions, and I will have the medicine put up by the druggist.

ANSWER—It would take a lot of bananas and raisins to start a tapeworm, if he once took up residence in the alimentary tube. Tapeworm infection is acquired by eating underdone pork, as a rule, in this country; underdone beef may also carry the larvae form of the worm ("measly" meat). The larvae is so small it is easily overlooked. In the alimentary canal of the human host it develops into the tapeworm. You do not state how you reached your conclusion. If in any other way than by seeing the segments of tapeworm discharged from the body, or by the discovery of eggs of the tapeworm under the miscrocope, your conclusion is probably wrong. The eggs of the tapeworm in the human host ultimately pollute the ground somewhere, and swine (or cattle) are infected by polluted food. Thus the cycle is constantly maintained. There are no symptoms by which tapeworm can be assumed to be present, other than the identification of segments passed from the body or by finding the eggs with the microscope. In making blood counts, when an excessive proportion of a certain type of white corpuscles, called cosinophiles, is noted, that suggests the presence of some such parasite.

Dr. Brady will answer all signed letters pertaining to health. Writers' names are never printed. Cable and Mail Communication With Our Soldiers Abroad

A prescribed form of address for cable messages to members of the American Oversea Expeditionary Force has been announced by the war department, which must be followed to insure delivery.

The cablegram should be addressed "Amexforce, London," with the addressee's name and the official designation of the unit to which he belongs appearing as the first words of the text.

For example:

> Amexforce, London
> H. K. Smith, Company K,
> Forty-seventh United States Inf.
> Will not change address.
> Jane Smith.

The attention of senders of messages to any person in our oversea forces is called to the fact that, in conformity with the invariable rules of the British and French censorship, cablegrams conveying affectionate messages and conveying reports of birth, death and kindred information, will have slight chances of being sent on account of the abnormally heavy traffic on the cables. This rule will be adhered to rigidly and without exception in cases where no good could come from, or where mental distress might be caused by such cablegrams. Each sender of a message should study it with the above in view before filing it.

How to Address Letters.

Letters should be addressed as follows:

> John Smith,
> First Lieutenant (or other official designation—or private) Company M, 642d Infantry Reg. (or other command)
> American Expeditionary Forces.

No more—no less. Don't add "France" or "England" or "New York"—or attempt to extend above form. Any letter so addressed and mailed will go straight to its destination. Write out in full "American Expeditionary Forces," and DO NOT write "Am. Ex. Forces."

AUSTELL OFFERS CITY LOT FOR SCHOOL SITE

Owner of Suitable Lot Agrees to Partial Payment and Credit for Balance.

Alfred Austell, owner of the Austell lot at the corner of Euclid avenue and Washita street, upon which the majority of the Atlanta board of education has agreed unofficially as the place for the new Moreland Avenue school, has offered the lot to the city for the sum of $37,500, and agrees to accept the $20,000 that has been appropriated, make the city a deed for the property, and accept the moral obligation of Atlanta for the $17,500 balance to be paid in one and two years.

This offer, which was made through James S. Floyd, vice president of the Atlanta National bank, simplifies the plan by which a citizens' committee from the ninth ward endeavored to place the city in possession of this lot. The citizens' committee proposed to give the city a deed for a portion of the Austell lot upon payment of $20,000; holding the deed for the balance of the property in escrow until the balance, $17,500, was paid in installments of one and two years; but objections were raised to the proposal, it being unlawful, it is declared, for the city to purchase property on the installment plan, because no board can bind a succeeding board.

The plan offered by Mr. Austell, however, does not remove all obstacles in the acquisition of the Austell lot and the immediate decision upon a lot for the new Moreland Avenue school site, as the acceptance of Mr. Austell's offer would have to be ratified by council, which would require further delay, unless a special meeting of the city fathers was called for the purpose, and it is by no means certain that the purchase of the lot for $37,500 would meet with the approval of a majority of the members of council.

Councilman A. J. Orme, a member of the committee to investigate the Austell site and others that may be available for the Moreland Avenue school, declares himself decidedly in favor of the Austell lot, realizing the importance of securing building sites with sufficient space upon which to erect suitable structures.

The board of education will meet this afternoon and will hear the offer made by Mr. Austell, which will be embodied in a report of this committee which is headed by Chairman James E. Hickey.

PAVING BIDS TOO HIGH, STATE COMMITTEEMEN

City Construction Chief Considers Urging the Paving of Peachtree by Day Labor.

Members of the council street committee regard the lowest of the three bids submitted for the paving of Peachtree street, between James and Pine streets, as so high that Chief of Construction Henry L. Collier said Wednesday that if the contract was awarded to this company that the cost of paving Peachtree street would near $150,000. According to Councilman J. N. Renfroe, of the first ward, himself a contractor, the city could pave Peachtree street for half that amount. Chief Collier went further to say that he had under consideration the advisability of recommending the rejection of all bids and further recommending that the city, under the supervision of the construction department, undertake the laying of the pavement by day laborers.

The lowest bid handed in was that of the Meador Construction company, which was $5.75 per square yard for asphalt on a six-inch concrete foundation, and $9.25 per square yard for granite blocks on a six-inch concrete foundation. The matter will be settled at the meeting of the streets committee on Friday, May 17.

TAXI DRIVER HURT WHEN CAR SKIDDED

When his car turned turtle as he was rounding the curve on Piedmont road near Cheshire road, Walter Castello, 38 years old, a taxicab driver of 327 Central avenue, narrowly escaped death Wednesday afternoon shortly after 2:30 o'clock. He was hurried to the Grady hospital, suffering from cuts on the face and arms, caused by the broken windshield, and bruises about body. Although he was painfully hurt, it is not believed he was seriously injured.

Castello stated the accident was caused by a loose steering gear, which caused the car to skid. He says there was a woman passenger in the car, but that she miraculously escaped uninjured, and continued her way to Camp Gordon.

IRISH POTATOES AS FLOUR SUBSTITUTE NO LONGER ALLOWED

Irish potatoes are no longer a substitute for flour in Georgia, as the result of an order to this effect received Wednesday from Washington by Major D. F. McClatchey, executive secretary of the federal food administration. No explanation of the reason for the change accompanied the order. Under former ruling Irish potatoes could be purchased with other cereals as part of the substitute for flour. This will now be prohibited.

Railroad Ordered To Continue Trains And Repair Trestle

An order of the Georgia railroad commission, addressed to Joseph F. Gray, general manager of the Ocilla Southern railroad, will compel that company to resume service on the Hawkinsville and Western railroad to Perry, Ga. The company was instructed, funds or no funds, to repair the Indian Creek trestle, which it declared is unsafe, and to run its trains. And the order goes into effect ten days from today.

The case came up when objections were made to the company's unauthorized discontinuance of service April 30. The railroad commission demanded that Mr. Gray explain and he explained Tuesday that the condition of the trestle, lack of funds, lack of credit and the fact that the particular line referred to was not profitable had caused discontinuance. He said he could not get money to repair the trestle.

The order, none the less, compels its repairing and the commission was not obliged to bother itself about where the money would come from, it was said.

Furthermore, the Ocilla company is not to be permitted to avoid its lease with the owners of the Hawkinsville and Western line.

COMMITTEE TO PROBE APPROPRIATIONS TODAY

Executive Secretary Claude A. Smith, of the state government, was Wednesday preparing data from institutional reports of the state of Georgia for use today when the legislative committee to investigate the legality of last year's appropriations begins its sessions.

On Thursday appropriations to the University of Georgia and its branches, Dahlonega college, Augusta Medical, Georgia Tech, Athens Normal, Athens Agricultural, Milledgeville Normal and South Georgia Normal, will be scrutinized.

The experiment station appropriations and those for the insane hospital, academies for deaf and dumb and blind and similar state institutions will come up Friday.

Congressional district agricultural colleges are scheduled for Saturday.

It has been declared that all the appropriations, except to the common schools and the Confederate Soldiers' home are unconstitutional and the hearing will be most important.

EXAMINATION DATE SET FOR PUBLIC ACCOUNTANT

Announcement has been made by Joel Hunter, chairman of the state board of certified public accountant examiners, that an examination will be held on Wednesday, May 15, in the rooms of the Tech school of commerce and that applications must have been received by Monday, May 13.

It was declared that several women have applied for information regarding the examinations and that the examinations may be taken by some women, although none has yet applied. The profession offers an attractive field to women.

Members of the board, in addition to the chairmen, are Harold Hirsch, of Atlanta, and R. W. Jemison, of Macon.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR MRS. LEWIS TODAY

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary R. Lewis, aged resident of Newnan, Ga., and formerly of Atlanta, who died early Tuesday morning at the home of her son, Arthur Lewis, of Newnan, at the age of 90 years, will be conducted from the home on Thursday after the arrival of her son, Claude R. Lewis, from New York.

Mrs. Lewis was the mother of Homer T. Lewis, a sister of Mrs. J. D. Turner and the grandmother of Clark Lewis, deputy clerk of the superior court, all of Atlanta, and she was one of the most widely known and most beloved women of Coweta county.

WOMEN VOLUNTEERS WANTED FOR ONE DAY

A special call for 25 Atlanta women volunteers for three days' war work was issued Wednesday by the food administration. These workers will be mobilized at 47 Auburn avenue this morning at 9 o'clock and will be assigned to classification of data in connection with flour redistribution within the state. This work has been made necessary by the embargo placed on the shipment of flour into Georgia.

Ben D. Watkins has donated the workroom at 47 Auburn avenue and the food administration has announced that women may regard a day of work here as equal to a day of service in khaki.

PARK MANAGEMENT ASKS PARAPHERNALIA

The management of Lakewood Park wants to use some of the playground paraphernalia belonging to the city of Atlanta, and a request has been made for this privilege by H. G. Hastings, president of the Southeastern Fair association.

Mr. Hastings says that the use of the playground equipment of the city is wanted by his association during the coming summer months. His request is based upon the idea that the playgrounds will not be operated this year by the city, and the matter has been taken under advisement by the park commission.

A request has also been made that the public be allowed to angle in Piedmont Park, and the fishing privilege was granted by the commission. The park commission is also considering a plan to allow the soldiers at Fort McPherson to use the Oakland City swimming pool three times a day.

NEGRO ODD FELLOWS TO PARADE SUNDAY

What promises to be the largest meeting ever held in Atlanta by negro Odd Fellows and Ruths will take place May 12, at Ebenezer church (colored), corner Jackson and Auburn avenues, at 2:30 o'clock. All of the lodges of the city are expected to take part in the parade, which will be staged prior to the meeting.

These yearly Thanksgiving meetings have been observed throughout the United States for a number of years. The Atlanta Odd Fellows will celebrate their seventy-fifth anniversary at this meeting.

Two Sent to Reform Home.

Two young women, Mrs. D. F. Smith and Mrs. L. K. Beser, were sentenced yesterday to twelve months at the county reform home at Buckhead by Judge Andy Calhoun in the city criminal court. The women were charged with vagrancy. Through their attorney, John S. Highsmith, they entered a plea of guilty.

HARRIS WILL CONFER WITH MANAGERS TODAY

Senatorial Candidate Arrives in City Wednesday After Formal Resignation.

William J. Harris, candidate for the United States senate to succeed Thomas W. Hardwick, arrived in Atlanta from Washington on Wednesday and will enter into the active conduct of his campaign for the senatorship, when he will meet with his campaign managers from various parts of the state during today and Friday at his headquarters at the Kimball house.

Mr. Harris has resigned his place as chairman of the federal trade commission and will now direct his energies toward the success of his race against the field of his opponents. He stated Wednesday night that he is going to carry the issue upon which he is seeking the senatorial toga into every county in Georgia, speaking face to face to the citizens in each.

At the conference today and tomorrow Mr. Harris will receive reports of the progress of his campaign throughout the state and plans will be developed for its further advancement.

Mr. Harris will go back to Washington the last of the week to sign some important papers in connection with his work as chairman of the federal trade commission and will then return to Georgia.

SLIGHT IMPROVEMENT IN DEPOT CONGESTION

Atlanta Freight Consignees Are Again Urged to Remove Shipments Promptly.

Atlanta's freight depots are still jammed with incoming freight. Letters have been sent out to local consignees requesting that they have their freight receiving departments make every possible effort to assist the government in this difficulty, but the situation has been bettered but little.

The congested condition is brought about by the universal abnormal conditions, the reduction of coastwise shipping facilities and the freight embargoes in effect in various parts of the country rather than by any one class of shippers or individuals.

The law allows every consignee 48 hours in which his goods may lie in the freight sheds without storage charges, but Atlantans are asked to be patriotic and aid in lessening the congestion by removing their goods the same day they are received.

A subcommittee from the committee on public safety, headed by T. C. Waters, have made an investigation of conditions in the various freight yards and findings bear out the statements of the road officials. It is hoped that consignees will remedy this situation at once and that it will not be necessary to go before the legislature or the railroad commission to ask for a change in the demurrage laws.

Device for Ridding Plants of Boll Weevil Displayed at Capitol

A mechanical device for clearing young cotton of the boll weevil has been placed on exhibition at the Georgia department of agriculture and may be given official tests in this state.

It is the product of an Atlanta company, and consists of a light wooden frame, screened on the sides, and supporting two troughs within the frame and near together. The operator carries it by a handle and a strap over his shoulder and walks with it along the cotton rows. The cotton stalks pass between the two troughs and collide with a diagonal strip of canvas in such wise that the weevils are shaken off against the screened sides and into the troughs and the oil which they contain.

The device cannot be used after the cotton reaches a certain stage in growth, but it is calculated to be used when the plant is five to six inches high and continuously afterward until it is too large for the machine. Then weevils caught at this stage of the cotton will mean the prevention of hundreds later in season.

No statement approving or condemning the device has been given by Georgia offficials, Commissioner J. J. Brown not having returned from Albany yesterday. Among the signed letters of recommendation accompanying the instrument, however, is one from A. L. Kimbrough, secretary of the state board of agriculture of Alabama, who certifies that he himself has used the machine with satisfactory results and that in his opinion it is the practical machine to use when cotton is small.

AUTO THIEF MAKES BOLD DAYLIGHT ESCAPE

Ross Gilley, who seems possessed with auto-nerve, is being sought by city and county police on several counts. While a local automobile tracing concern was on the hunt for a Super-six Hudson, which was stolen in Chattanooga Sunday, and which was thought to be on the way to Atlanta with Gilley at the wheel, a Super-six Hudson with the much-sought young man as chauffeur, came slowly down Peachtree street yesterday morning. When the car reached the Candler building an agent of the tracing company, who was standing on the sidewalk, recognized the car, quickly told Officer Clack of the city force and both the officer and agent made a dash for the running board of the car. Clack made the car and was unceremoniously knocked off by Gilley, who, heedless of traffic laws, crossed on the wrong side of the street, turned into James street and was soon lost in the traffic.

In 1916 Gilley was indicted by the grand jury on the charge of having received stolen goods. In March of this year he, with six or seven other boys, was arrested, indicted and convicted of wholesale automobile stealing.

Divorce Verdicts Awarded.

Claiming that her husband, Robert M. Freeman, treated her with contempt and derision when he was drunk, which was quite often, Mrs. Jennie P. Freeman appeared before a jury in Judge W. D. Ellis' division of the superior court in an effort to obtain a divorce. Mrs. Freeman states in her petition that "she was not even allowed the privilege of entertaining her friends in her own home, not even her lady friends." She was granted a first verdict. James Wallace, Mrs. Mae Cherry Weston, Charles A. Mooney, Mrs. Ethel Lendy and Mrs. Frances C. Jenkins were also awarded verdicts yesterday.

Labor Heads to Meet Sunday and Discuss Legislative Plans

The general executive board of the Georgia Federation of Labor will meet at the Temple of Labor at noon Sunday. This meeting was called by Ross Copeland, of Augusta, president of the federation, to work out the details of matters that were referred to the board at the convention, which was held in Augusta last month, and to hear the reports of the committee that has been investigating the Callan affair.

Louie Marquardt announced yesterday that all the evidence so far found by the investigating committee pointed to the innocence of Callan, who was arrested in Columbus, Ga., charged with having dynamite, whisky and maps of Columbus industrial plants in his possession.

The executive board will also consider the merits of the various sanatorial candidates with the view of laying before the membership the qualifications of these candidates in order that the man best qualified to look after the interest of labor will receive the labor vote.

Plans will also be made to start on the legislative work of the federation. The federation will try to have their anti-injunction bill passed at the next session of the Georgia legislature.

LUTHERANS TO RAISE FUND FOR WAR WORK

The Lutheran Brotherhood of the English Lutheran church in Atlanta has begun a campaign to raise its quota of the $750,000 war work fund pledged by the national organization, and every member of the church will be canvassed.

A committee including Philip Weltner, William B. Ahlgren, Julius J. Setzer, R. M. Burton and Arthur Anderson, has charge of the local campaign.

The national Lutheran commission has undertaken to raise a large fund to be used in war work among the soldiers and sailors of the church, and more than a million dollars has already been pledged by members of the denomination. The Lutheran Brotherhood's quota of $750,000 is expected to be raised in a few days.

ALLEGED FORGER RELEASED ON BOND

C. E. Davis, who was arrested last week a few miles from Rome, Ga., by Detective Sergeant George C. Bullard, after he had been indicted by the Fulton grand jury on the charge of forgery, and was committed to jail in lieu of a $5,000 bond, made bond and was released Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Riley J. Kennebrew, J. B. S. Kennebrew, J. W. Marshall, of Girard, Ala., who also owns land in Fulton, and G. W. Woods, of Fulton, went on the bond.

Davis, who is 41 years old, was convicted in Cobb county in 1916 on charges of forging a chain of land deeds, but the verdict was later reversed on th grounds that it was not shown the crime was committed in Cobb county. Recently Davis was jointly indicted with H. D. Leon, formerly a justice of the peace in Cobb county, on a charge of forging a deed on land in Ware county, which was formerly owned by the late Judge Logan E. Bleckley. It is charged that the victim was a Ware county farmer.

Urges Volunteer Enlistment.

Captain Famel, of the army recruiting station, is urging all young men who have become 21 since June 5, 1917, to enlist at once, as they will not be allowed to volunteer after they register in June. Practically every branch of the army is now open for voluntary enlistment and men of all trades are needed.

Loses Suit Against City.

A verdict in favor of the city of Atlanta was found by a jury in the superior court in the damage suit brought by Frank B. Jones against the city of Atlanta. Jones claimed that he was injured when he drove into a large excavation on Ponce de Leon avenue at the ball park. The accident happened on the night of December 13, 1916.

MANY ARE SUMMONED FOR SUGAR VIOLATIONS

Twenty-Five Alleged Breakers of Administration Rules to Appear.

Twenty-five alleged violators of food administration sugar regulations were Wednesday summoned to appear before the administrators on Thursday. Three soda fountain proprietors were assessed a total of $100 for hoarding or unauthorized sale of sugar. Three grocery firms were found guilty of violation of flour rules. And two packing companies of nation-wide reputation were requested to disgorge $500 each to square accounts for their lack of respect for a poultry ruling. Thus ended a busy day for the food administration.

The Morris and Armour packing companies were penalized for disregard of the order of March 2, which prescribed only one sale "within the trade" of any lot of frozen poultry be made, and ruled that all such sales be reported promptly. The $1,000 to be paid will go to the Red Cross.

Retailers Who Contributed.

The grocery concerns that violated the flour rules were:

Gillespie company, Maysville, for selling flour at excess profit; contributes $25 to the Red Cross.

W. B. Stovall, Monroe, for selling flour without sufficient substitutes; contributes $25 to the Red Cross.

Red Grocery company, Gainesville, for selling flour without substitutes; contributes $25 to the Red Cross.

The soda fountains affected were the following:

Temple Soda company, Peachtree street; guilty of having too much sugar on hand. Permitted to contribute $50.

Jacob Auerbach, 390 Capitol avenue; guilty of having too much sugar on hand. Permitted to contribute $25.

H. D. Durr, Peters building; guilty of distributing 100 pounds of sugar to customers without using it in fount. Permitted to contribute $25.

Consternation assailed the ranks of the sugar violators when 25 of them were Wednesday ordered to appear for hearing. Some of them may be liable to a fine of $5,000, or to imprisonment for two years, or both. They are charged with having on hand or under contract more than 80 per cent of the amount of sugar they would use in normal times.

A Complete Shut-Out.

Their consternation was deepened when it was learned that the administration's order suspending their business for indefinite periods would have an absolute effect. The order, such as is issued against the Hagan & Dodd Co. and the Red Rock company, bottlers, is not to be served upon the companies but upon the trade. Sugar dealers are forbidden to sell sugar to them.

Nor can they continue business by purchasing syrups and preparations from other companies at cost prices. The order forbids the sale of sugar in invert form to such companies. It is a complete shut-out.

Mr. Lee Hagan, of the Hagan & Dodd company, declared Wednesday that his company's violation was a result of its understanding that government contracts must be fulfilled regardless of the food administration. On this basis the order will be fought.

"Otherwise," said Mr. Hagan, "if the food administration is willing to close us down when we have enormous government contracts to fill for the benefit of the boys in camp, then we must be willing, too."

ATLANTA WILL PROTEST SEIZURE OF ITS COAL

An official protest will be sent this week through the mayor's office to the national fuel administration at Washington against the seizure of three cars of coal destined for Atlanta by the Louisville and Nashville railroad.

According to Albert Thomson, secretary to the mayor, the coal was seized by the railroad at Corbin, Ky., while on its way to this city. Mr. Thomson also stated that this was not the first time that coal, which should have come to Atlanta, had been seized by the Louisville and Nashville.

How to make your will

The first thing to do is to make a complete memorandum of the property which you have to dispose of by will.

Then consider very carefully to what persons or for what objects you wish to leave your property. Also decide whether it is to the best interests of the beneficiaries that property or cash should be given them outright, or whether it should be put in trust, with the income payable to them.

Then take these memoranda to a thoroughly competent and experienced lawyer, instructing him to prepare your will. Your attorney will doubtless confirm your decision that it will be to the best interests of your estate that the Atlanta Trust Company be appointed executor and trustee.

R. R. ENGINEERS OUT WITH STATEMENT

Men in Cabs All Over the Country Tell How Tanlac Restored Them to Health and Relieved Trouble.

When a railroad engineer's health is impaired, the lives of thousands may be endangered daily, for his work requires a clear brain, a steady nerve and a strong constitution. The following statements from some of the best known railroad engineers in the country tell how Tanlac relieved them of suffering and restored their health:

W. L. Nabers, Atlanta, Ga., said: "I had lost appetite—liver and kidneys were deranged—haven't had a pain since taking Tanlac—gained 14 pounds."

L. C. Bowers, 910 First Ave., Nashville, Tenn., said: "Tanlac overcame my stomach trouble and nervousness—gained 8 pounds."

D. A. Middleton, 1717 Chenovert street, Houston, Tex., said: "Was in bad shape—couldn't walk—Tanlac built me up like a new man—gained 11 pounds."

S. T. Watkins, Birmingham, Ala., said: "Suffered 27 years with stomach disorders—Tanlac ended my troubles."

Jeff D. Riggs, 2020 Pearl street, Vicksburg, Miss., says: "Was nervous and physical wreck—gained 25 pounds."

Other well-known railroad engineers who have indorsed Tanlac are: J. B. Watson, Mobile, Ala.; B. F. House, R. D. No. 5, Atlanta, Ga.; T. G. Ayers, 107 Rainey Ave., Nashville, Tenn.; C. J. Weeks, 2139 Lydia Ave., Jacksonville, Fla.; Lynn Sills, 440 Bellevue Ave., Memphis, Tenn., and others too numerous to mention.

Tanlac is sold in Atlanta by Jacobs' Pharmacy Co., and by one regular established agency in every nearby town.—(adv.)

TECH AND GEORGIA PLAY IN ATHENS

Teams Start Series Friday. Two Games in Classic City—Then Two in Atlanta.

The "croocial serious" of the college season is upon us. Tomorrow and Saturday at Athens, the great Georgia-Tech baseball series will be on.

Dope on the outcome of these games is, at best, the hardest in the world to figure, but this season no dopester would have the temerity to attempt it.

The Red and Black and the Yellow Jackets have played in and out baseball all season. They've played much like the little girl with the curl. And playing one another, it's dollars to doughnuts, they'll run true to their form of the whole season.

Tech has a chance to tie with Auburn and Mercer for The Constitution's pennant to be awarded to the team winning the greatest percentage of games in the quadrangle league. To do this she must win three of the four games to be played. By winning all four she'd win the pennant.

But an even break in the four-game series, the remaining two games to be played in Atlanta the following week, is about all that any one could hope for.

All roads will lead to Athens Friday and Saturday, with the big crowd slated for Saturday, when the Tech student body will probably make the trip.

Crackers Win First Game On Local Soil This Year

Sam Crane's Brilliant Fielding and Lynch's Relief Twirling Feature 2-to-1 Win Over Vols.

By Dick Jemison.

The Crackers won their first ball game of the season on home soil yesterday afternoon when they shut Roy Ellam's Nashville Vols out, 2 to 0, in the first game of a four-game series.

The game was played quickly and prettily throughout, with the two teams threatening at odd times to get across a marker or two that might have changed the complexion of the game.

Joe Engel started for the Crackers, but sprung a wild streak in the sixth inning and was relieved by Lynch. The relief pitching of the latter was one of the game's features, the big right-hander going in with the bases loaded and one ball on the batsman and coming out without a run. He did not allow a hit during his occupancy of the mound.

Engel seems to lack confidence in himself. He pitches like he is holding back in a realization that he's wild. We believe that when he really cuts loose and takes the bit in his teeth that he'll get his confidence and with it will go a lot of games on the right side of the ledger for the locals.

CRANE'S PRESS AGENTS DID NOT SAY ENOUGH.

Sam Crane, the Cracker's new shortstop, lived up to everything good that has been said about him in his local debut. His press agents, and there were many among the ball players here, did not say enough good things about him.

They said he was the best fielding shortstop in the game, but they did not say that he was as brainy a player as he was a fielder.

Crane kept the Crackers in the ball game Wednesday. It was two plays of his in the third inning that cut off two hits and stopped two runs from flitting across the pan, and both plays were made to look easy by the graceful way in which he handled them.

Hoyt was on third and Ellam on second, with only one gone. Baker hit sharply between third and short. Crane slid over in that graceful manner of his, played the bad hop in wonderful style, and, to the surprise of every one in the park, ball players of both sides, the umpires and the spectators, plus we scorers, fired the ball, true as a die to the plate, getting Hoyt standing up. It was some moments before any one seemed to realize what happened. That Val Picinich caught the ball and touched the runner is the real surprise to us. We looked to first, expecting the play there, when—zing!—we heard the ball crash into Picinich's mit and saw Val tagging the runner.

To our mind it was one of the greatest fielding plays ever pulled at Poncey, a play that required quickness of eye, arm and brain, with all working in conjunction.

But Crane did not stop here. On the very next play, he cut over back of McDonald at third, scooped up a mean hopper from Knisely's bat, and with a rifle-like throw from deep short, nailed Pete a step at first.

He topped these performances with another stellar stop, handled six chances without a bobble, and made a net sacrifice that put Tex and Jake in position to score the only runs of the game.

LOCALS NEED ONLY HURLERS TO COP.

The Crackers need only hurlers to cop. The team looks better as it stands now than the team looked last season. They don't need great pitching, but only average pitching to win the majority of their games. If they get good pitching, they'll romp home in this league.

Crane has certainly plugged a hole at short, and Ward McDowell has taken on a new lease on life and is now playing grand ball at the keystone and hitting better than any man on the club. Maybe working alongside of Crane has been the proper tonic. We always considered McDowell a good ball player, and for him to come through would please us immensely, as Ward is one of these type of players that one gets to like, a gentleman with it all.

Ward banged a couple of hits, one a double, giving him eight hits in the last three games.

Val Picinich hit the ball hard Wednesday, driving in the Crackers' two runs with a smash between third and short in the second inning. The next time up he lined to O'Brien and lined to Knisely the last time. Both balls were hit as well as the one on which he got his hit. He was just out of luck on the last two.

Umpire Bill Brennan was hit on the hand in the first inning, and for a while it was thought his finger was broken. Fortunately, not. Dr. Auten bandaging it with tape and Bill going on gamely with his work. Lynch was added to the hospital corps when he slid into first base in the seventh, tearing a gash in his leg.

To add to the excitement of the game, Brennan fined Burke and Kauffman $10 each for kicking at a called strike on Burke.

The Crackers' two tallies in the second were the result of singles by McDonald and Munch, Crane's sacrifice and Picinich's single.

New Orleans, May 8.—Robertson not only held Memphis helpless for nine innings here today, but he tripled in the locals' eighth and started the rally which scored two runs and beat Memphis in the final game of the series, 2 to 0. Until the eighth, Fentress hurled shut-out ball, but Robertson's triple was followed by Hemingway's double and then two sacrifice hits—one a bunt and the other a fly—did the rest.

Mobile, May 8.—Although Little Rock outhit Mobile today, Cavet kept the visitors' hits well scattered and Mobile won the deciding game of the series, score 4 to 3. All runs scored by Mobile were made off Tuero, who was hit opportunely. Little Rock used three pitchers and two pinch hitters in an effort to win. Coombs walked four times in as many trips to the plate, scoring twice. Catches by Orcutt, Damrau and Walsh featured a well played game.

Birmingham, Ala., May 8.—In one of the hardest fought games ever played at Rickwood Birmingham triumphed over Chattanooga by the score of 4 to 3, the game being decided in the thirteenth inning when, with Bernsen on third, Enright cut loose with a wild pitch. The Barons tied the score in the ninth on Southworth's single and Clark's two-bagger to deep center. In the final thirteenth, Bernsen hit for two bases, went to third on Enright's wild throw to second and scored when the Chattanooga pitcher heaved one over Higgins' head.

Willard-Fulton Bout Barred.

Morris Lux v. Jake Abel; Bernie Hahn v. Kid McKee

Two Main Bouts for Boxing Show May 15—Fans Assured of Another Great Card.

NEXT BOXING CARD.

Morrie Lux vs. Jake Abel, 10 rounds.

Bernie Hahn vs. Young McKee, 10 rounds.

Two preliminaries.

By Dick Jemison.

The above is the boxing card that the local boxing promoters have arranged for their boxing show at the Auditorium-Armory next Wednesday night, the double wind-up being closed yesterday afternoon.

In arranging this card, the local promoters have arranged for their double wind-up, two bouts that will furnish as much wild action as marked the double wind-up at the last boxing show, which Atlanta fans are still talking about.

The winners in the two main bouts are being used in this card. Abel defeated Battling Budd and Hahn defeated Jimmy Pappas, and both have been matched with tougher boys for this show.

We need not comment on Abel and Hahn. Those fans who saw them in action on April 29 know that they'll put up a great fight, regardless of who it is against. And those fans who did not attend have heard of it from those who did.

Lux Is a Comer.

Morrie Lux, who has been in Atlanta since last Friday and who has been working out daily at 2 o'clock at the Atlanta Athletic club, is one of the coming welterweight stars, if fight critics know what they are talking about.

His workouts have convinced those fans who have seen him in action that Abel is up against the toughest proposition that he has been called upon to face since he has been in the boxing game.

Lux's style is similar to that of Hahn's, a tearing in fighter, who gives no quarter at close range, and nothing suits him better than to swap punches with his opponent. He will be in the best shape of his career when he lines up against Abel.

Lux has met some of the best boys in the welter division. His recent showing against Johnny Griffiths, the Akron flash, whom critics consider the best of the welters despite the fact that Kid Lewis holds the title, still has Mempis fight fans talking and urging Promoter Haack to rematch the boys.

Any Atlanta fan that wants to give Lux the once-over can do so by paying a visit to the Atlanta Athletic club any afternoon at 2 o'clock. Lux has certainly made a hit with those fans who have already watched him work.

McKee Tough Boy.

In Young McKee, whom the promoters have picked to box Bernie Hahn, the Chattanooga flash, who gave Pappas such an artistic trimming at the last show, Atlanta fans will see another bantam of the same type as Hahn.

McKee is a newcomer to the game, but under skillful handling, there is every indication that he will be at the top of the heap before much longer.

McKee is from Oklahoma City and has fought most of his bouts there, in Tulsa and in Texas, meeting some of the best boys in the business.

He holds a newspaper decision over Earl Puryear, the boy that the local promoters were trying to get to meet Hahn. He fought a ten-round draw with Benny McNeil when that fast little featherweight was in the bantamweight class.

McKee's chief claim to fame is a ten-round bout with Pal Moore, regarded by many, now that Herman is in the service as the best of the bantams. The referee gave the bout a draw, but of the three papers where the bout was held, two said that McKee had a shade, while the other said it was a draw.

There will not be an ounce difference in the weight of the two boys. They will both enter the ring weighing 116 pounds.

Popular Prices.

Two preliminaries will be secured to wind out the card. These will be four rounds each.

Popular prices will prevail. A new scale of prices will be introduced for this show, giving Atlanta fans more for their money than the fight fans of any city in America will receive.

The general admission will be 55 cents. The dress circle or balcony will be $1.10, the boxes and stage will be $1.65 and the ringside $2.20.

The tickets will be on sale at Chess' place, on Edgewood avenue; the Piedmont hotel cigar stand and at Herman Cooper's news stand on Peachtree street. They will be on sale either tomorrow or Saturday and remain on sale there until the night of the battle.

With these prices and the card that is arranged, Atlanta fans can look forward to the best evening's entertainment that has ever been presented here.

AMUSEMENTS

Loew Vaudeville.

(At the Grand.)

Ed Dunbar and Josephine Turner, one of the funniest pairs in vaudeville, and "Everyman's Sister," a brilliant playlet, combining in clever manner the attractive features of the old morality play and the modern crook drama, are two of the outstanding acts on an exceptionally entertaining bill at Loew's Grand theater for the last half of this week. Other acts of the highest class on the program include Cervo, master of the piano-accordion; the Rambler sisters in a song review and the Ishikawa brothers in Japanese tumbling. An excellent picture program will include George Walsh in "Brave and Bold," a new and thrilling photoplay.

Keith Vaudeville.

(At the Lyric.)

Another attractive bill of Keith vaudeville will be offered at the Lyric, beginning with performances this afternoon and evening. Josie Heather, the winsome English comedienne, with assistants, will appear in a song revue. The Texas comedy quartet will be another big feature, and in addition there will be Demarest and Doll, the man, the girl and the piano; "The Propville Recruit," with Edward Esmonde and company, and Espe and Dutton, billed as topnotchers of versatility.

Wallace Reid.

(At the Forsyth.)

The history of detective fiction made famous by Gaboriau, Poe and Sir Conan Doyle, contains few less thrilling incidents than those which are disclosed in Wallace Reid's newest Paramount picture, "The House of Silence," which is to be shown at the Forsyth theater today. In this photoplay Wallace Reid portrays the role of a wealthy clubman whose hobby is the investigation of crime and in which he is exceptionally clever.

Mabel Normand.

(At the Strand.)

The willingness of Uncle Sam to cooperate in matters unlikely to interfere with the operation of his official machinery was well illustrated in the ready and complete assistance given Mabel Normand, Goldwyn star, in the making of her new photoplay, "Joan of Plattsburg," now at the Strand, by the officers and students at the great military training camp at Plattsburg, N. Y.

"A Pair of Sixes."

(At the Vaudette.)

"A Pair of Sixes," at the Vaudette today, adopted from the famous stage play of Edward Peple, shows Taylor Holmes in one of his merriest moods. The complications of the story hinge around the mirthful incompatibility of two business partners. When they decide to abide by the verdict of a hand of poker as to who will run the business for a year and who will be the other's personal servant, T. Boggs (Holmes) loses.

Clara Kimball Young.

(At the Criterion.)

Max Marcin's master melodramá, "The House of Glass," continues to please crowded houses at the Criterion theater and will hold the screen for the balance of the week. The leading part is in the hands of Clara Kimball young. Max Marcin has never done anything better than this stirring play of American life; his character delineation, his plot development, his dramatic craftsmanship, all mark "The House of Glass" a master melodrama. The film possibilities of this work were recognized immediately upon its stage presentation; all the big picture producers have dangled golden lures before the owners of the dramatic rights, and it was only after keen competition and by the payment of an unprecedented price, that Miss Young acquired it.

William S. Hart.

(At the Alpha.)

William S. Hart, the famous two-gun man, comes to the Alpha today in a six-reel, shoot-'em-up western drama, entitled "The Bargain." This picture shows Mr. Hart in his best western style, and promises a thrill a minute throughout the entire picture. Henry B. Walthall will be shown at this theater Friday in a Paralta superfeature, "His Robe of Honor."

Madge Evans.

(At the Savoy.)

Madge Evans, the World's kiddie star, is coming today to the Savoy theater in "Gates of Gladness," in which Madge is seen in one of the most attractive and delightful roles she has yet assumed. The picture has been staged on an elaborate scale and is a fast-moving, altogether pleasing and entertaining offering. One of the most interesting and unique characterizations which Warren Kerrigan has ever portrayed is his part in "The Turn of a Card," which will be shown at the Savoy Friday. The picture is one chock full with "snap and go."

Skin Diseases

Caused by Humors in the Blood.

There is nothing more distressing than an itching, burning skin disease and upon the return of warm weather thousands of people know they are to be tormented through the Summer months. The blood is heated with humors and acrid matter and as these impurities are forced to the surface the skin seems to be literally on fire.

At this season of the year the Liver, Kidneys and Bowels become torpid, dull and sluggish and fail to perform their duty. Accumulations remain in the system and are absorbed by the blood, producing Eczema, Tetter, Psoriasis, Acne, Salt Rheum and skin diseases of every description.

Eczema appears usually with a slight redness of the skin, followed by pustules from which flows a sticky fluid that dries and forms a crust, and the itching is intense. In Tetter the skin dries, cracks and bleeds, and is often very painful. The acid in the blood dries up the natural oils of the skin, causing a dry, feverish, hardened condition and giving it a leathery appearance. Acne makes its appearance on the face in the form of pimples and blackheads, and is particularly disagreeable because of its unsightly appearance. Psoriasis, a scaly disease, comes in patches on different parts of the body. Salt Rheum discharges a watery fluid, forming sores and producing intense itching.

These and all skin diseases are due to the same thing—burning acids and humors in the blood, and until this vital fluid is cleansed and made pure they will continue. External applications of salves and lotions can not reach the trouble for it is in the blood. The best treatment for all skin diseases is S. S. S., a remedy that is purely vegetable, being made entirely from roots, herbs and barks, and acts directly on the blood with a cleansing, healing effect. It neutralizes the acids and purifies the blood so that the skin, instead of being blistered and burned by the fiery fluids, is nourished by a supply of cooling, healthy blood. It goes down into the circulation and forces out every particle of waste or foreign matter, builds up the blood and relieves all skin diseases promptly and permanently. S. S. S. does not leave the least particle of the poison for future outbreaks, but entirely rids the blood of the cause for all skin diseases.

Nothing equals S. S. S. in the treatment of these troubles and for building up the general health. Get a bottle of S. S. S. from the drug store today and begin a treatment that will bring real relief. Write for our treatise on skin diseases and any medical advice free. Address 409 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

Calomel Loses You a Day's Work! Take Dodson's Liver Tone Instead

Read my guarantee! If bilious, constipated or headachy you need not take nasty, sickening, dangerous calomel to get straightened up.

Every druggist in town—your druggist and everybody's druggist, has noticed a great falling off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason. Dodson's Liver Tone is taking its place.

"Calomel is dangerous and people know it, while Dodson's Liver Tone is perfectly safe and gives better results," said a prominent local druggist. Dodson's Liver Tone is personally guaranteed by every druggist who sells it. A large bottle doesn't cost very much, but if it fails to give easy relief in every case of liver sluggishness and constipation, you have only to ask for your money back.

Dodson's Liver Tone is a pleasant-tasting, purely vegetable remedy, harmless to both children and adults. Take a spoonful at night and wake up feeling fine; no biliousness, sick headache, acid stomach or constipated bowels. It doesn't gripe or cause inconvenience all the next day like violent calomel. Take a dose of calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak, sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work. Take Dodson's Liver Tone instead and feel fine, full of vigor and ambition.—(adv.)

CHANGE TO SUMMER UNIFORMS MADE SOON

May 15 Is Date Set for Change to Hot Weather Clothing.

With the approach of real summer weather officials at Camp Gordon are arranging for the change of the forces of the camp from winter to summer uniforms, and it has been announced that on May 15 the entire camp will be issued light khaki to take the place of the heavy woolen clothing now being worn by the men.

This will be welcome news to a large per cent of the men now at the camp, for already northerners, easterners and westerners are beginning to feel the effect of the climate of "the sunny south" and to advocate a change from concrete barracks stoves to electric fans.

Another precaution that authorities are taking against the ravages of hot weather comes to Gordon in the shape of an authorization for the big ice and cold storage plant recently announced for the camp. Equipped with this plant, it is more than probable that the men will spend the summer in comparative comfort and food shipped to Gordon will be protected from the heat.

aides, Captain Houghton and Lieutenant Russell. They were uninjured.

Lieutenant Colonel Metcalf, division surgeon, and an enlisted man, also stood nearby. The enlisted man was instantly killed, but Metcalf was unhurt.

The bodies of some of the victims were literally blown to pieces.

The 141st and 142d infantry regiments were at the trench system near Penbrook using new mortars for the first time, and their firing practice was being watched from a distance by a large crowd of civilians.

The two gun crews, made up of men from the headquarters companies of the two regiments, were operating the mortars, which were located on a hill overlooking the trench system.

The entire breach of the mortar was blown out and fragments flew in every direction.

Visit of President's Daughter Strengthens Morale of Troops

Miss Wilson's Visit to Gordon of Much Importance to Soldiers--Big Audiences of Khaki Greet Singer at Camp Service Units.

All records for attendance at camp entertainments have been smashed at Gordon during the past two days when Miss Margaret Wilson, daughter of the president, appeared at the camp in several musical concerts at the Y. M. C. A. units, and it will be many a day before the men will forget Miss Wilson and the splendid entertainment she has afforded.

Miss Wilson wound up her series of concerts at Camp Gordon Wednesday night when she sang at Units 158 and 153 to monster audiences of soldiers of the camp's forces and civilian workers. Probably the largest audiences that have greeted her here, however, enjoyed the splendid programs and the short little patriotic talks she offered Tuesday night at Units 149 and 156.

Not only have Miss Wilson's concerts been a source of great entertainment and pleasure to the men who comprised her audiences, but the interest she is taking in her work and the joy she displays in "doing her bit" plainly indicates that the singer is enjoying the happy mission on which she is embarked.

"I should like to spend the rest of my life singing to the soldiers," she declared after one of her concerts, and the universal verdict of the men is that they would enjoy listening to her voice for the remainder of their lives. Accompanying Miss Wilson are Melville A. Clarke, of Syracuse, harpist, and Mrs. Ross David, pianist.

"Miss Wilson's appearance at Camp Gordon and the splendid work she has accomplished here is one of the greatest boosts to soldier morale that has ever been given at Gordon," is the statement made by a number of officers of the camp forces. "She has completely won over the hearts of the men who have heard her and has given them a correct view of the attitude in which the whole United States stands in regard to their welfare."

Following the close of her schedule at Camp Gordon Wednesday night, Miss Wilson will appear Thursday night at Y. M. C. A. Unit No. 1 at Fort McPherson. She will sing at many other camps in the southeast before returning to her home. While in Atlanta Miss Wilson was the guest of Mrs. Edward T. Brown, and she was the guest of Mrs. Richard W. Johnston at a luncheon tendered Wednesday.

WEADON WILL STAGE FRENCH OPERETTA

Talent of Camp and City to Offer Benefit Shows for Red Cross.

Manager Percy Weadon, of the Camp Gordon Liberty theater, has announced what is easily the biggest entertainment project ever launched at the camp—the staging at Gordon and in Atlanta the splendid and well-known operetta from the French of Meilhac and Heroi.

The performances will all be staged for the benefit of the Red Cross and will be rendered by a cast made up of talent from Gordon and the city. Sixteen young ladies from Atlanta and a large number of officers and men are scheduled to take part.

Lillian Poli, of the San Carlo Opera company and well-known star of the opera stage, will take a prominent part, and a number of capable Gordon soldiers and Atlanta civilians are being considered. The performances will be held at the Liberty theater on June 7 and 8 and at the Atlanta theater on June 10.

Newton Wiley Ends Series of Lectures To Gordon Soldiers

Newton Wiley, of Toronto, Canada, who has been doing some special legal work for the Canadian and British Temperance Unions, has completed his series of addresses at Camp Gordon after making a fine impression on the men and accomplishing some splendid work at the camp.

Mr. Wiley is a nephew of Captain Barnhardt, of the Camp Gordon's base hospital, and is the youngest Canadian to be asked to speak before the house of commons of Great Britain. He will return north, it is understood, to complete his work in Canada.

AMERICUS AVIATION CAMP WILL HOOVERIZE

Americus, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—"Whatever the government ordains for the people of the country in behalf of the boys in France, and for the benefit and general welfare of the country is satisfactory to the soldier boys in this country," said Major Carlisle Wash today to Franc Mangum, food administrator for Sumter county, who requested to have the various regulations of the food administration observed at Southern Field, the aviation camp near Americus.

"I am sure," added Major Wash, "that every man at the aviation camp will enter heartily in the spirit of the rules."

There are now at the camp, or will be within a brief time, at least two thousand officers and men, and the elimination of wheat products two days during each week, it is anticipated, will result in a monthly saving of 8,000 pounds of wheat flour.

PETTY PROFITEERS TO BE HANDLED BY U. S.

Overcharging Soldiers in Camp to Be Watched by Local Committees.

Washington, May 9.—(Special.)—Petty profiteers who have been victimizing soldiers and sailors in war camp communities will be shown short shift by Uncle Sam.

Many complaints of overcharging have been made by men in uniform to the war department commission on training camp activities and steps have been taken to stamp out the practice. Through the war camp community service, special committees of city officials and leading merchants are being organized in the camp centers to protect the soldiers from unscrupulous and unpatriotic dealers. Where profiteering is reported pressure will be brought to bear upon the offending dealers in an effort to have the money refunded.

In the cases of overcharging that have come to the attention of the training camp commission, the guilty parties for the most part have been dealers from the outside who have been attracted to the camp centers by the prospect of getting rich quick on the soldier trade. It is against their kind that the commission's action is being directed.

Atlanta has been remarkably free from this type of profiteering, according to the reports received from officials of the Atlanta War Camp Community Service, and stands in marked contrast in this respect to some southern camp cities.

fact, it was constituted in two divisions soon after its arrival on the other side. The fact that more than 500,000 have gone this year also shows the accelerated rate at which the men have been moving forward since the winter passed and eased the shipping and embarkation situation.

The effect of Mr. Baker's announcement in Germany and Austria, if it is allowed to reach those countries, will be watched with interest. There is little doubt that the German general staff has known that some hundreds of thousands of men have been sent across by the United States, but the size of the force has been carefully kept from the rank and file of the German army as well as from the civilian population.

SMYRNA CITY CLERK KILLED BY AUTOMOBILE

Smyrna, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—George L. Daniell, city clerk and tax collector, one of the foremost and most highly respected citizens of this section, was struck and fatally injured here today by an automobile driven by Miss Mattie Stegall. Mr. Daniell died within a few minutes after being rushed to Dr. Nolan's sanitarium at Marietta. No blame was attached to Miss Stegall, as it was said by witnesses that Mr. Daniell stepped unexpectedly in front of the car and it was impossible to avoid hitting him.

Mr. Daniell is survived by his widow, five sons, C. E., of Marietta; R. H., of Smyrna; R. M., of San Antonio, Texas, and T. J. and George S., of Atlanta, and three daughters, Mrs. O. T. Sewell, Mrs. R. A. Walker and Mrs. D. D. Myers, of Atlanta.

The funeral arrangements are awaiting the arrival from San Antonio of R. M. Daniell. Mr. Daniell was a member of the Primitive Baptist church at Maloney Springs and had lived in this section all his life.

MURRAY CELEBRATES LIBERTY LOAN VICTORY

Chatsworth, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—A large crowd assembled at the courthouse here today to celebrate Murray county's victory in the Liberty Loan campaign, this county having oversubscribed her quota by 70 per cent.

The exercises at the courthouse were preceded by an impressive parade of members of the Red Cross in uniform, bondholders and citizens. Stirring patriotic speeches were delivered by T. W. Brooks, Dr. S. A. Brown, H. H. Anderson, R. H. Shelton, D. P. Starr and Dr. F. M. Jones, with J. Roy McGinty as master of ceremonies.

At the close of the exercises the county's honor flag was raised over the courthouse amid the cheers of the citizens.

VARIETY ON PROGRAM AT GORDON THURSDAY

Religious Services at Several Units and Popular Camp Movies at Others.

A variety of entertainment is offered at the various service units of the Gordon system Thursday night, the principal feature of which will be a splendid play, entitled "The American Girls' Triumph," presented at Unit 155 by a party of Atlanta entertainers.

Religious services conducted by camp and city speakers will be held at Units 149, 153, 157, the auditorium and 161. Programs arranged to fill the vacancies in the old schedule arranged for Miss Margaret Wilson will be staged at Units 152 and 154.

Director Llewellyn, of the Y. M. C. A., will screen popular camp movies of the week's run at Units 151, 152 and 162. Miss T. Thrower and party, of Atlanta, will offer a splendid musical concert at the Knights of Columbus hall.

APPLICATIONS OPEN FOR FOURTH SCHOOL

Board of Officers Appointed to Select Men for Training Camp.

Application for the third series of officers' training camps are now open at Camp Gordon, it has been announced, and a special board of officers has been appointed by General Sage to take charge of the work of receiving bids for berths as student officers.

The board is composed of Major Virgil M. Kinbrew, Captain Archibald E. Tanner and First Lieutenant Charles B. Merritt. The headquarters of this board is located at the camp headquarters building.

Just where the men elected to the fourth camp will be sent has not been finally decided. All enlisted men except those enrolled in the Seventeenth brigade of regular army infantry and those units of the Eighty-second division that still are located at Camp Gordon are eligible for entrance and they will be carried on the detached service list until they become eligible for their commissions.

HAARLEM OIL CAPSULES IF YOUR BACK ACHES

Do you feel tired and "worn-out?" Are you nervous and irritable? Don't sleep well at night? Have a "dragged out" unrested feeling when you get up in the morning? Dizzy spells? Bilious? Bad taste in the mouth, backache, pain or soreness in the loins, and abdomen? Severe distress when urinating, bloody, cloudy urine or sediment? You should use GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules immediately. The oil soaks gently into the walls and lining of the kidneys, and the little poisonous animal germs, which are causing the inflammation, are immediately attacked and chased out of your system without inconvenience or pain.

Do not delay a minute. Go to your druggist and insist on his supplying you with a box of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. In 24 hours you will feel renewed health and vigor. After you have cured yourself, continue to take one or two Capsules each day so as to keep in first-class condition, and ward off the danger of future attacks. Money refunded if they do not help you. Ask for the original imported GOLD MEDAL brand, and thus be sure of getting the genuine.—(adv.)

From an Old English Print in the possession of Cox & Co.'s Bank. A Recruiting Party.

TO U. S. OFFICERS

AT the commencement of the present war, Cox & Company's Bank established a subsidiary in France under the name of Cox & Co. (France), Ltd., through which Officers in uniform can cash checks on Cox & Co., up to the equivalent of £5 (about $25) at any one time, without the formality of establishing identity and signature—a convenience which no other Bank can offer, and which obviates the necessity of carrying ready money or easily-lost letters of credit in the war zone.

To cover the whole of France, a special arrangement was made with the Bank of France, whereby the same privileges were extended to Officers in uniform by all the many hundred Branches of that Bank in places where no branch of Cox & Co. (France), Ltd., existed. The same facilities were also provided throughout Italy, at all branches of the Banca Italiana di Sconto.

These facilities, of which practically all British Officers and a number of United States Officers already in Europe avail themselves, are now accorded to all Officers of the American Expeditionary Force, Military, Naval and Air Services, who open banking accounts with Cox & Co.

Founded in 1758—thirty-one years before George Washington became the first President of the United States—Cox & Company's Bank has been inseparably associated with British military enterprise ever since; it has held the appointment of Bankers and Official Agents to the entire British Household Brigade, as well as to the bulk of the Cavalry and Infantry, from the time of the Battle of Waterloo up to the present day.

BEFORE SAILING FOR EUROPE, instruct your Banker to give you a draft or to cable you a transfer to Cox & Company, Charing Cross, London. Current accounts are conducted without charge, and interest at prevailing rate is allowed on deposit accounts. International exchange at finest rates.

Summary of weather and crop conditions in the cotton belt for the week ending May 7, 1918:

Washington, D. C., May 8.—Most of the week was too cool for the best development of cotton, corn and truck, but the last of the week was warmer and more favorable. The rainfall was moderate to heavy in Oklahoma and central, south and east Texas; light elsewhere. Cotton planting continues to northern border and chopping in the south. Cotton generally has poor stand, much replanting is necessary and growth has been slow. Meadows, pastures, grains, fruits and potatoes are doing well. Rains benefited ranges in western Texas. Wheat and oats are ripening in the south.—Marvin.

Synopsis of weather and crop condition in Georgia for the week ending Tuesday, May 7, 1918:

Very cool weather continued to prevail during the first part of the week ending May 7, 1918, with light frosts at many places in the northern portion of the state. The unseasonably low temperatures checked the growth of vegetation generally, killed much cotton, necessitating considerable replanting, and caused the poor germination of seeds. From promise of an early season at the end of March conditions changed to almost a late one by the beginning of May. The stand of cotton is now poor to fair, though still good in some sections; some are plowing up cotton and planting corn instead; chopping is progressing slowly. Corn is doing better, and is generally good. Wheat and oats are well headed and oats are beginning to ripen in the south. Setting sweet potato slips continues; potato and tobacco plants seem to be starting off well. Irish potatoes promise a large yield; digging continues in the south; very few bugs have appeared. In many sections peanuts did not come up well and a poor stand is reported, but a large acreage will be planted. Gardens, truck, pastures and minor crops improved considerably the latter part of the week with warmer, more favorable weather. Fruit is still very promising, with early varieties of peaches ripening in the extreme southern counties. Farm work is now late in many sections, with some complaints of grass, but no one is badly behind.

New York, May 8.—The feature in the cotton market today was the weekly report of the weather bureau, which proved a distinct disappointment to recent sellers.

Rallies occurred in consequence, with July contracts selling up from 25.03 to 25.76 and closing at 25.48, with the general list closing steady at a net advance of 8 to 20 points. The market was unsettled during the early trading.

First prices were easy at a decline of 10 to 25 points, and active months soon sold 20 to 32 points net lower in response to lower cables and favorable weather maps. The trade was still talking a bearish weekly review, but there was some covering in advance of its publication, and the report when issued placed more emphasis upon the unfavorable conditions during the earlier week than upon improved weather later.

Many traders considered it quite as bullish as any of the three preceding weekly statements, while covering was also promoted by bullish southern spot advices. Trading was not active enough to suggest that these features were creating any general demand for long account, but there was a little trade buying on the advance which carried October up from 24.42 to 25.08 and December from 24.40 to 24.85, or 33 to 41 points net higher.

This advance of some 65 to 75 points from the early low level met realizing, however, and last prices showed reactions of 20 or 30 points from the best.

A New Orleans firm places the condition of the crop on May 1 at 78 per cent and estimates an increase of 3 per cent in acreage. Latest returns to another southern authority suggest a decrease of two-tenths of 1 per cent in acreage, and estimate domestic mill consumption for April at 554,000 bales against 552,000 last year.

Spot cotton quiet; middling 27.25.

HIGHER PRICES LEVELS AFTER POOR CROP ACCOUNTS

New Orleans, May 8.—Higher price levels resulted in cotton here today from poor crop accounts from the government, although around the opening the bear element was encouraged to undertake extensive selling operations on the good showing made by the weather map. This selling sent values 27 to 31 points under yesterday's close. From this, after the posting of the weekly reports, there was a rise to a level of 27 to 47 points over yesterday's finals, the highest prices being reached late in the day. Right on the close there was a burst of profit-taking by early buyers and the gain was pared down, last prices showing net advances of 2 to 17 points.

Warm and dry weather over the belt and the forecast, pointing to little change in these favorable conditions, made it appear at the start that any unfavorable features in the weekly crop accounts would be offset, but the weekly returns were so much worse than anticipated that the advantage was entirely with the long side. The buying on this basis persisted well into the afternoon. Favorable spot reports from the interior also helped the market.

INNING FOR RAILS IN STOCK TRADING

That Division, Particularly Coalers, Receives Consistent Support on Indications of Substantial Increases in Rates, Freight and Passenger.

New York, May 8.—Interest in today's stock market concentrated to an unusual extent in rails, that division, especially coalers, receiving consistent support on indications of a substantial increase of freight and passenger rates. Reading shared the honors of the session with United States Steel, those two stocks absorbing a preponderant percentage of the enlarged offerings, though moving in opposite directions.

Reading scored an extreme advance of 4 points to 87¼, while steel reacted from its new maximum of 103⅞ to 102½ and closed at 103, a net loss of ¾ of a point, a trivial reversal in view of the enormous volume of profit-taking.

Numerous secondary or low priced rails, including New Haven, Grangers and cotton carriers, participated in the general advance of transportations and the so-called Harriman and Hill groups derived stimulus from crop prospects and better March earnings.

There was a marked revival of activity in shippings, confined, however, to Marine preferred and Atlantic Gulf at gross gains of about 2½ points, while motors also strengthened on retention of the Studebaker dividend.

Independent steels and associated equipments made 1 to 2 point extensions to yesterday's rise, distillers gained 1½ and Industrial Alcohol 4⅛, tobaccos and fertilizers recording irregular gains, with some impairment at the close.

Foreign bonds were variably better, but Liberty issues displayed further irregularity. Total sales, par value, aggregated $4,925,000.

United States bonds, old issues, were unchanged on call.

Sugar.

New York, May 8.—The market for raw sugar continues steady at the fixed level of 4.985 for Cubas, cost and freight, equal to 6.005 for centrifugal. The committee continues to purchase liberally and as yet no shortage of tonnage has been complained of to any extent with the prospects of larger shipments from Cuba this month than last. Today's purchases by the committee were 430,300 bags of Cubas, May shipment, and 22,500 San Domingo afloat for New York for Canada.

Dry Goods.

New York, May 8.—Cotton goods here today were generally quiet. Yarns were steady. Dress ginghams were priced for next spring on a basis of 32½ cents for 26-inch seersuckers. The government has been making known to spinners of worsted yarns the price bases on which they shall work for the government in large contracts now under way.

Coffee.

New York, May 8.—Reports that the prospect of American government purchases in Brazil were imparting a firmer tone to the Santos market, gave coffee futures a comparatively steady ruling at the start today. Later, however, offerings increased and prices eased off as a result of scattering liquidation, while there was also a little trade selling accompanied by reports of business at lower levels in the cost and freight market. The opening was unchanged, but after selling at 8:55 early, September declined to 8.43, and the general list closed at a net loss of 11 to 12 points. WHEAT FORECAST GIVES CORN RALLY

Official Forecast of 573,000,000 Bushel Crop Was Under Private Estimates, Although Decidedly Above Average—Helps the Grain Bulls.

Chicago, May 8.—Correct anticipations that the government crop report while indicating one of the three largest wheat crops ever grown would not prove altogether as bearish as had recently been looked for, had a good deal to do today with rallying the corn market from temporary sharp declines. Prices closed unsettled, ¼c net lower to ⅛c advance, with May $1.27½, and $1.46 to $1.46⅛ July. Oats gained ⅝ to 1c net, and provisions 17 to 57c.

Inasmuch as private estimates within the last week have placed the prospective winter wheat crop at 600,000,000 bushels to 650,000,000 bushels, the official figures indicating a total of about 573,000,000 bushels were not up to expectations, although decidedly better than the average. Prospects of unseasonable low temperatures by Friday or Saturday tended also to handicap the corn bears. In the first part of the day, however, bulls were at a disadvantage owing to government figures showing that commercial stocks of corn were much larger than a year ago. The fact that the weather had continued auspicious for farm work and pastures counted, too, as a temporary bearish factor.

Oats responded to the same influences that governed corn.

PROFESSIONAL VIEWS ON COTTON SITUATION

New York, May 8.—(Special.)—A much steadier tone in a very quiet market, closing some 10 points higher after erratic fluctuations on moderate transactions. One of the local traders bought quite freely during the morning. The weekly report was not quite as good as expected and the trade have been interested in an upward reaction for several days. On the other hand the weather is very good over the entire belt. If this condition continues outside buyers are apt to delay investing in cotton. The differences between the grades in this market are established by the United States future law, based upon the averages of certain southern markets selected by the government. We think the market will be controlled by the conditions affecting the growing crop.
HUBBARD BROS. & CO.

New York, May 8.—(Special.)—Today's market was not broad, but showed a healthy undertone and in our opinion indicates a higher range in the near future. We suggest purchases at present levels.
JOHNSTON, STORM & CO.

New York, May 8.—(Special.)—The weekly weather report was about as expected by those who had weighed the weather situation with care, the first half of the week being on the average unfavorable for the plant, the latter half favorable. Southern advices report spots firmly held, and spinners again making inquiries around the 25c level for October contracts. The south sold freely.

572,539,000 BUSHELS WINTER WHEAT OUTLOOK

Possibility Government Hope of Billion Crop May Still Be Realized.

Washington, May 8.—Hope for the billion bushel wheat crop for which the government is striving this year was strengthened today by the department of agriculture's May crop report forecasting a production of 572,539,000 bushels of winter wheat.

Secretary Houston in a statement tonight said there was every reason to anticipate increased farm yields this year over the record production of last year. He added, however, that the promise did not warrant relaxed efforts for greater production and greater conservation, and called upon the people of towns and cities to realize that the farmer cannot work miracles, and lend him the assistance needed at harvest time.

Realization of a winter wheat crop as large as that forecast would place this year's harvest of that grain as the third largest ever gathered. The estimate is 12,500,000 bushels more than forecast in April from conditions then existing and 154,400,000 bushels more than the crop harvested last summer. On conditions from now until harvest time will depend whether the crop will be larger or smaller than today's forecast based on conditions May 1. In the week since then generally favorable weather for wheat development continued and the crop has made excellent progress in all principal producing areas.

Nearly every southern state has greatly increased its winter wheat production, Tennessee showing the best record, with twice the 1917 figures.

Estimates of production in southern states and the final estimate for 1917 for comparison, follow:

	1918.	1917.
Virginia	20,576,000	17,920,000
North Carolina	13,167,000	19,765,000
South Carolina	3,148,000	1,838,000
Georgia	4,458,000	2,074,000
Tennessee	10,192,000	4,830,000
Alabama	1,541,000	930,000
Mississippi	533,000	210,000
Texas	8,092,000	16,200,000
Oklahoma	29,531,000	35,650,000
Arkansas	3,525,000	3,360,000

Efforts have been made to stimulate production of spring wheat, and preliminary reports indicate an increase in the acreage of that crop which may be sufficient under good growing conditions to bring the total wheat production this year well toward the billion bushel mark. No official report has yet been made on the acreage of spring wheat. The first announcement will be made in June. Reports indicate the seed already planted has germinated well generally.

Rye production will be a record, the forecast of the crop being 82,620,000 bushels, or 22,000,000 bushels more than last year's crop.

WORK OF TRACTORS MEETS APPROVAL

District Defense Council at Albany Adjourns After Urging Plans to Cope With Farm Labor Scarcity.

By Isma Deely.

Albany, Ga., May 8.—(Special.)—Indorsing the work of the tractor committee of the state council of defense, in introducing approved farm machinery in every district of Georgia, with a view to meeting the scarcity of labor problems, and indorsing recommendations made by J. E. Bodenhamer, farm help specialist, United States department of agriculture, to maintain as nearly as possible the normal supply of farm labor, the state council of defense adjourned its district meeting which held for two days in Albany.

The governor, as head of the council of defense, thanked the local council of defense, the chamber of commerce and citizens at large in Albany for their admirable conduct of the conference which brought from eight to ten thousand people to Albany. It was estimated that two-thirds of the men who came were farmers, and for their benefit there were farm machine demonstrations held Wednesday morning and afternoon at which dealers, farmers and members of the tractor committee of the council of defense attended.

The governor presided at a morning session held in the auditorium, where there was informal discussion of the use of tractor machines in Georgia. Many farmers gave their experience. Tractor manufacturers gave information on new models, and then the labor problem as it presented itself on Georgia farms was discussed.

How to Increase Labor Supply.

J. E. Bodenhamer explained that as farm help specialist he had made a survey of conditions in the state. He stated that "in order to maintain as nearly as possible the normal supply of farm labor, the farmer must draw upon other than the usual sources. The most important of these are as follows:

"1. Retired farmers from small towns and villages, especially at the critical periods, such as planting and harvesting. 2. Merchants and other business men from the country towns and villages. These can usually get away from their business for a few days at a time, especially during the farmers' rush seasons when business is very quiet in town. 3. Boys of high school age who do not normally work on farms. 4. Women workers for some of the lighter work of the farm. 5. Other workers, especially those who have had more or less farm experience who are engaged in less essential industries, many of which will no doubt be curtailed if the war continues for any length of time.

"Many so-called retired farmers normally do some farm work either on their own farms or elsewhere," Mr. Bodenhamer said. "Last season many more of them responded to the call for service in raising crops. During the coming season every retired farmer who is physically able should be on the 'firing line' again. Most of these men have been not only high-class farm hands, but also skilled farm managers, and can now be of great service, both in doing actual farmwork and in helping to direct inexperienced labor, such as will necessarily be used to a greater extent than usual.

"It is especially important that the retired farmers help at the rush seasons, such as planting and harvesting. The able-bodied retired farmer is going to have an opportunity to render a really important service during the present emergency.

"The opportunity of the city and townfolks to help the farmer is here stated. Those who can offer their services are requested to register their names and addresses with the county demonstration agent, or with the secretary of the chamber of commerce or board of trade, or with the federal state employment bureau, wherever there is one."

Governor's Busy Day.

The governor had a busy day. He visited the Albany negro institute at 8:30 o'clock in the morning, returning in time to preside at the council of defense meeting. He visited the local Red Cross work rooms, where 60 of Albany's representative women work under the direction of Mrs. David Brown and Mrs. Henry Tarver.

The governor, Mayor Tift and members of the council of defense reviewed the negro parade at 1 o'clock, which was followed by a patriotic rally, at which fine work was reported by negroes of their work for war savings and Liberty Bonds.

The late afternoon and evening the governor and Harry Hodgson visited Fowltown and Oakland plantations, as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Little. Mrs. Samuel Inman, chairman of the woman's committee of the council of defense, who accompanied the governor to Albany, made a patriotic address before the women of Moultrie today. Mrs. Henry Wortham, of Macon, representing the Bibb county unit council of defense, made an excellent report to the governor and to Mrs. Inman of the work the women of Bibb are doing along every line of patriotic work.

ATLANTA FOLKS ARE PRAISING MEDICINE

Mr. John M. Giles, 240 Woodward Ave., Atlanta, Relates How Plant Juice Has Benefited His Wife.

The new herbal stomach remedy, Plant Juice, is popular because it attacks, eradicates and removes those all-prevailing ailments—stomach, liver, kidney trouble and blood diseases. Twenty-five per cent of city folks are rendered unhappy or miserable and are incapacitated by these enervating, life-sapping diseases. Moping, half-hearted, dyspeptic men and women with thick, slow-flowing blood and yellow skins, coated tongues, touches of rheumatism and, in fact, as one may express it, "fagged out" and "run-down," become life friends of Plant Juice as soon as they try it. It re-vitalizes the stomach, liver and kidneys and injects new life into those who take it.

Considerable talk has been stirred up locally by the wonderful relief that Mrs. John M. Giles has experienced from the use of Plant Juice. Recently in conversation with the Plant Juice Man, at Jacobs' Pharmacy, Mr. Giles made the following statement regarding his wife. He said:

"We have resided in Atlanta for the past eight years and many of our friends know that my wife was a constant sufferer from her stomach. Her food did not digest, but fermented and formed gas and bloating, which was very distressing to her. I purchased a bottle of your Plant Juice to try, and must say that for the short time she has used it, it has pleased her very much and she is well satisfied from the results she has had from its use. This testimonial is given with permission to publish same and I am in the hopes that it will be the means of inducing some stomach sufferer to try your medicine."

Such words as these and many others which have been published, have wide influence, for they come from men of standing and integrity who are glad to add their words of praise to the benefit that has been received from Plant Juice.

Any one of the following symptoms may denote the presence of a deranged stomach: Indigestion, dyspepsia, coated tongue, sour stomach, gas or bloated feeling after meals, sleeplessness, poor appetite, heavy sensation after a meal, constipation, headache, backache, dizzy spells, restlessness, puffed eyes, bad taste in the mouth and no energy.

The Plant Juice Man is at Jacobs' Pharmacy, Nos. 6-8 Marietta street (Main Store), where he is daily meeting the local public and introducing and explaining the merits of Plant Juice. Free samples given.—(adv.)

CHILD GETS SICK CROSS, FEVERISH IF CONSTIPATED

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm tender stomach or bowels.

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste; liver gets sluggish; stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."—(adv.)

Varied Emotions Called Forth by "Kaiser" Film

Women, Men and Children All Find Points to Appreciate in Great Moving Picture at Rialto This Week.

As "The Kaiser—the Beast of Berlin" nears the close of its farewell engagement at the Rialto theater this week, opinion among Atlantans concerning this great picture is as varied as it was when "The Kaiser" was first shown here.

To stand in the lobby of the Rialto and listen to the comments of the movie fans as they issue forth after the close of the picture, is to get an interesting insight into human nature. No two think alike, save on one thing—that "The Kaiser" is well worth seeing, both as a patriotic picture and for the sheer artistry with which it is done. But there the unanimity of opinion stops.

"It is horrible!" said one woman yesterday, "perfectly horrible! To think that things like that can happen! I get sick every time I see that Prussian officer wiping that little boy's blood off his sword blade."

"Where do you get that stuff?" replied the man with her. "Nothing horrible about it at all. Of course, I don't mean to say I don't hate the Huns, but what I mean is—things like that are really happening, you know. The picture isn't a bit overdrawn."

There were two children with the couple.

"Which part did you like best, Tommy?" asked the mother.

Tommy's eyes sparkled. "When the sojers was marshin' 'n marshin'!" he sputtered. Then the other little boy—"'n I liked the part where they took the old kaiser 'n they put him in jail 'n I hope they killed 'im dead!"

Women in Biennial Convention Send Greetings to Gen. John. J. Pershing

By Mary Carter Winter.

Hot Springs, Ark., May 8.—(Special.)—"The women of the United States will stand behind the American soldiers and soldiers of our allies in every measure to the end that this war shall be won for the peace and happiness of the world."

That is the greeting from the women of the fourteenth biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs to General John Pershing, leader of the American forces in France. That word may be sent up and down the line, not alone to our own boys, but to all other boys who are fighting shoulder to shoulder with them.

This "hands across the sea" from the women of America, as represented in the convention, to the boys abroad was taken on a rising vote that women should more emphatically declare their support.

Many resolutions were adopted by the convention, the principal ones being that the women of the nation should be represented by a woman as assistant federal food administrator.

Urges Universal Registration.

A resolution recommending that men above 16 years of age, able-bodied, be required to be registered by the government, and that the government have authority to see that every man who is able to work is engaged in some useful occupation, was adopted.

Minneapolis and Asheville, N. C., have invited the annual council, which meets the alternate year of the biennial. One of these places will most likely be selected.

A Happy Feature.

One of the happy features of the convention proceedings was the making of Mrs. Percys B. Pennypacker, former president of the convention, an honorary president.

Collusion as a prohibition of divorce is objected to in a resolution agreed on by the legislative committee. The women believed that if a couple wanted divorce and could not live together it ought not to be necessary for them to violate the standard requirements for divorce.

The women agreed to urge marriage laws that would provide for the publication of the bans of matrimony 30 days before the marriage, and that it include examination to determine whether either of the parties had a physical or mental disease that would be a sufficient bar to matrimony.

ALL RAIL WORKERS TO GET PAY INCREASE of the time, this end cannot be secured, there must be allowed play for other forces than those we have recognized."

Flat increases of $30 a month are proposed for all employees except apprentices receiving $46 or less, and all others up to $239 would get advances ranging from 43 per cent downward to 4.6 per cent, the smallest increases going to those with the highest wages. Above $239 flat increases would be given to make the wage $250. Apprentices from 18 to 21 years of age would receive only three-fourths of the recommended increases, and those below 18 years, one-half.

In the application of the scale, the wage runs with the place so that men who have been promoted since December, 1915, shall receive increases applicable to the new place and not to their wages in that month. Men discharged since January 1, shall receive their share of the retroactive pay for the time that they worked.

McAdoo Studying Report.

Mr. McAdoo is studying the report, which was made public tonight, and will decide what increases shall be allowed, probably within ten days. It is considered certain that he will make readjustments which he believes to be necessitated by the intricacies of union wage scales and other wage factors. The commission based its recommendations on the monthly pay of the men, inasmuch as the advances were recommended to equalize wages and the growing cost of living, but the rates of increase were arranged for all classes of employees, whether paid by the month, day, hour or number of miles.

An important feature of the report was the recommendation that where the same service is rendered the pay shall be the same without discrimination as to sex or race.

Overtime pay and hours of service should not be disturbed during the war, the commission reported in suggesting that an exhaustive study be made of both subjects with a view to changes to eliminate dissatisfaction and improve the service. It was recorded, however, that a "standard day of reasonably limited length is as much a part of the measure of justice with the working man, as of his rate of wage."

Permanent tribunals to continue the study of railroad labor problems and to adjust many grievances presented to the commission, but which it was unable to take up, were proposed. With the comment that its inquiry showed substantial readjustment of the salaries of railroad officials would promote the efficient operation of the roads, the commission added:

"Some salaries may well be abolished altogether, others greatly reduced, while in some cases of lesser paid officials as increases would be warranted."

A total of $30,000,000 was found to have been paid out during the year ending December 31, 1917, to officials receiving $5,000 a year or more.

To Maintain Living Standard.

The commission stated its guiding principle in recommending increases in the following words:

"A sufficient increase should be given to maintain that standard of living which had obtained in the pre-war period, when, confessedly, prices and wages were both low. And upon those who can best afford to sacrifice should be cast the greater burden. . . .

"The magnitude of this amount ($283,000,000) is not staggering when the whole expenditure for wages upon the railroads (nearly $2,000,000,000) is considered. And whatever its effect upon the mind may be, we regard such an expenditure as necessary for the immediate allaying of a feeling that cannot be wisely fostered by national inaction, and not one dollar more in justice at this time requires. It will make hard places smoother for many who are now in sore need. It gives no bounty. It is not a bonus. It is no more than an honorable meeting of an obligation."

Beginning with the advance of $20 a month to workers receiving $46 a month and less, the recommended increases follow a sliding scale, varying with each dollar of advance in the basic pay. The percentage declines steadily as the higher paid classes of employees are reached, but the amount to be added to the wages increases gradually to $36, the largest amount recommended, which will go to workers making from $84.01 to $85 a month. From that point the amount decreases like th epercentage.

How the Increases Run.

The increase recommended varied in amount based on monthly pay up to $250, where the increases stopped. Under $46, the increase recommended was a flat $20 a month. East Point Officials Protest Higher Rates For Power Company

Joining forces with citizens of Atlanta in an effort to secure better service form from the street railway company, and to prevent any increase in fares and rates by that corporation, the city of East Point is on record, through a resolution passed by its city fathers, as being in the fight in earnest upon both these important questions.

East Point is located on the College Park and Hapeville lines of the Georgia Railway and Power company, many of its citizens living in the suburban town and doing business in Atlanta, and as much patronage is furnished the street railway lines from East Point, its city officials have entered a protest against the proposed increase in fares, declaring the service to be much inferior to what it was one year ago.
